A New Us, A New World

Now I know, and now you are about to know, there is only one, primary, solitary cause of all of the problems we have faced since the dawn of humankind.

I know, and you are about to know, the one primary source of all disease, and the cause of the capacity for violence. I know the physical structure on the Earth of the devices causing all these problems, including, hurricanes, tornados and earthquakes.

I know, and you are about to know, where these physical enemy structures, are hidden, including one deep under the ocean, being our enemies signal receiving and transmitting aerials.

This book contains no hard physics, I have single handedly gone on a Sherlock Holmes like, inner and outer, journey of exploration of what we know, and. what we did not know, bringing it all together, with twists, rivaling the best Hollywood plot and bestseller novel.

This book is normally only available for sale either on Amazon as a paperback or as an eBook download.

Today it is free to you in the hope that if you appreciate this book being free in any way, in return you would consider taking time out to visit by way of Google search for Sangreal on Indiegogo, my crowd-funding project.

And help in any way you can by way of your kind contribution in exchange for one of the many great perks you will find there.

Or if not able to contribute with money doing something just as valuable for us by spreading the word about Sangreal the family dice board game.

Sangreal . . . some do . . . some don't have a beautiful mind!

The following are three testimonials from players recently after filming for the Indiegogo pitch video you can watch to see why Sangreal's time has come with your help!

Three Testimonials:

Sue said, “Well I’m really surprised by how much I’ve learned about you two today, and I think Sangreal’s the kind of game that gets you talking to each other”.

Bonne said, “Yeah”.

Sue said, “And not so much about yourself, although of course Sangreal’s about you, Sangreal is about what you share, but things a little more than ourselves”.

Jenah said, “I learned something about you too”.

Sue said, “Ah cool, yeah I love that about Sangreal, it’s amazing”.

Bonne said, “Sangreal’s a game that you can learn from, Sangreal sort of opens up conversations on topics about people that you may know but also things like Sangreal sort of brings in topics that are not that usually spoken about or wouldn’t usually or come up in a conversation”.

Sue said, “Yeah”.

Bonne said, “Sangreal kind of opens up your world, and Sangreal’s kind of good though because you get to exercise different thought processes”.

Sue said, “Yeah that you wouldn’t normally “.

Bonne said, “Like the cards you bring out, like you really have to think sometimes”.

Jenah said, “Sangreal gives people a chance to say something without prejudice and they can say something honestly they think without people having to go on a huge debate against them or Sangreal’s just hearing peoples ideas which is nice”!

Sue said, “Yeah, perspective”.

Bonne said, “I quite like the fact that Sangreal is not competitive, because most games out there are and these games depends on who you play with, it can ruin the game if your playing with someone who is really competitive or is a really bad, you know a poor loser, but because Sangreal’s a game where everyone is equal at the same time and that includes everyone when it is your turn as well, Sangreal’s quite enjoyable”.

Sue said, “Yeah, Sangreal’s more ethical, it’s the level of co-operation, Sangreal’s cool”!

Sangreal board game . . . some do . . . some don’t have a beautiful mind!

Consciousness Engineering

Behind the veiled curtain of blackness we call the night of outer space lies an infinite world of colors, all a hidden nothing that is really something, that is, the rainbow filled colored light and sounds of time that is the beating heart of this game Sangreal. Likewise our brain lies in behind us, pulling the strings of our DNA, our genetic material. Until now in this our latest of times God is talking to us, as less than 2,000 years ago an enemy of humanity occurred, then an accident occurred to the great pyramid, causing the wonderful sound it produced from its aerial, at its peak to cease, and our world as we knew it came tumbling down around us. This was no accident, and now! We are continuing to pay the price of our folly, our attempts to change our own history by letting Marc write this piece. As we are all now left-brain orientated individuals and he and we, as we are all lefties want to now expand our world through the expansion of the left hemisphere, by the incorporation of the right hemispheres untapped wealth of knowledge, beyond our college educations, to instill in us our lost dreams, our lost schemes of world domination are now to be shattered by one man among us. Who refuses to just stop and smell the roses like the rest of us and if he did stop to smell the roses. This game would not be sitting here now, in your living room or on your dining table, or on your coffee table. As we now gather to pay homage not to him but to each other. As we have made it through the other side of the abyss of sound deepening to engulf us this fateful day our life's all went away. As we all decided to play a very dangerous game of cat and mouse with our lives and our livelihoods. It is understood in wood and the paper these quotations are written on have all been written in this way before, and this moment of our sitting down to play is a ground-hog day. A repetition of a scene being played out over and over each and every day. As we speak now to each other, stimulated we; Marc hopes by the delivery of each player's words of wisdom, on many profound subjects of interest to us all today on the eve of this one man's achievements. He has single-handed handed this world to us once again on a platter. A platter called by many names, but it is the Holy Grail of medicine, and of physics. I am referring to his knowledge, his understanding of color beyond college. He knows all about a world you know nothing about, and if you don't buck yourselves up, and play his game, we are leaving and never to return to these shores. Yes we are all around you, and yes he is one of us. As all of you are also one of us. Who are we? We are human-beings, we left this world behind, we thought devoid of life, until we heard a faint sound, one Xmas eve, a thought wave from the great beyond itself, and no I am not an alien and no I am not an Egyptian but I am the human brain, and I came all the same, to the aid and assistance of this man. As he made an inkling of an attempt to go, where no one else would go, into himself, deeply, deeper than anyone else had ever gone before. He deliberately ventured into me, and although you think of me as your brain. This left hemisphere lack of real honest-to-goodness knowledge you call your left hemisphere is not me at all, but you, and you have to move over rover and let daddy take over. Cos this is the best game in town. It's all about synchronicity not intricate, duplicate multiplicity of files, of inadequate smiles, of nothing worthwhiles, of endless suddenly beguiles. We need to move ourselves into the same time warp era he is in. So he can speak to us all as he will. As he is able to even now, but he needs to raise a little cash in a hurry because he loves a lot of folks who have nothing, not like him. As he has everything he ever needs except being able to see the same love he has inside himself over and through all walks of life now. As now, as we speak, as he writes, we are now approaching 66% of us living without a so-called wage packet of any kind and this is far too sad for him, and for us, all now deep down inside our now dormant right hemispheres of our brains, all except for his. As I your brain cannot cope anymore with your oh me, oh my precious this and that score for more and more. So I your brain have pulled the plug out now of the left hemisphere for good, and you will all continue to suffer and suffer As you fade away and become of little consequence. As this man, as I endeavor to raise the capital I require to drive you all beyond the borderline of insanity you have driven yourselves to, yes you are the patients and he has always been the doctor. Who of course, all your T.V shows, all your heroes of late, all the movies of late for some 23 years now since Marc created this game have been infiltrated by me by me your right hemisphere. Yes a little creative effort for you to share with one another. Yes this miracle of modern Consciousness Engineering which is Marc's specialist field, formerly metaphysics, formerly physics, formerly chemistry, formerly genetics have all been quickly consumed and amalgamated by this man's, by my efforts working through him, and as for the ground-hog day bit, I just, he just, wanted to bring to your attention, your attention span which compared to his, is as a gnat. Because he's all it and much, much more besides, he knows he's all it. Yet he continues to walk among you as if he is not. It is his style, you should try it sometime when you play the best little board game in this soon to be amalgamated and equal peopled global village of concern for one another, not no longer a society of me, me, me lording it all over the place. As in every facet of life, this life, now there is a multitude of excess sound and light waves traveling around us and now through us all the time. Sure we always had the violence and the ignorance due to the little accident at the Parthenon, and at the Great Pyramid I mentioned. But it has kept on lording itself all over until now Mother Earth cannot, can no longer cope, and now you have got enough radio sound ropes, in the atmosphere, to hang yourselves on your own petard, it's hard for me your brain to function, as I am supposed to. As I always seem to be able to in Marc, my long time friend and Ra, God of the Sun, God of light, God of sound now to you. And he's found away to cure every disease both mental and physical on the planet and as no one will give him the time of the day because they fear deep down he's right and they'll all lose their, my precious jobs, my precious livelihoods overnight, they continue to try to knock him down. As they are doing so now, as I, as he as myself, as I write this tale of truth, I am Doctor Who. I am the real deal time lord not out to change anything but you and yes I'm trying to change our world. But I believe I have everything you ordered up. No disease, no violence, no psychological fears, of doubts, of depressions, of alcoholisms, of all things running without wires, without wheels, without wings, without screens, without drugs. This is if you want a world like this, where all your energy is clean as can be and free.

Immanuel Kant said, "God has put a secret art into the forces of nature so as to enable it to fashion itself out of chaos into a perfect world system".

God's secret art is God's capability to place any fully formed thought chosen into the mind of any person.

God wants everyone with an illness healed and the capacity for violence removed. And although I managed to hunt out the science and psychology knowledge inside this book.

I did not have the full answer to healing I was seeking. Then the answer came, by way of God's favorite encoded device, a God influenced Hollywood movie. Turning ordinary minds into genius minds.

God's secret art is God's similar sounding words rhyming code, or direct movie encoded content. The next statement I am going to make will astonish you, God loves Hollywood movies, just this week I saw The Bourne Legacy and Total Recall on the big screen. During The Bourne Legacy movie I was in a state of wonder about the heroes genetic mutation.

Following watching the Bourne movie.

God gave the answer to healing!

In The Bourne Legacy movie the main character is physically enhanced by a genetic mutation, uploaded by way of an engineered designer virus, the virus likened to a suitcase carrying the necessary good genetic mutation. Also another virus was used to enhance him mentally.

Because of the massive work I did over the years, on physics to solve the problem of disease.

I was thrown by the God laid-in God Code hollywood answer as I did not know how to create a designer virus for the purpose of healing. Yet inside the next minute the full healing answer flooded into my mind in a burst of God's Failsafe mode and Perfect medical Matrix enlightenment.

I have filed for a provisional worldwide patent protection of the idea of using still born new infant lung tissue, turning it into a forced critical culture antibiotic. With the purpose of healing every illness, inside the human body, and mind. It is kind of like a new antibiotic. However it is also virus like, carrying good genetic material, explained by way of God's secret art in the dialogue of the Bourne movie, more detail upon this later in this book.

I also watched the movie Total Recall.

In it there is a scene containing a piano, with the mention of the main character having the key (C sharp) to solving his predicament. Also there is in the dialogue, the word failsafe, both terms used frequently in this book. Along with the sound key of C sharp along with the disease causing E sound key found by Nasa in deep space.

To explain this secret art, first I need you to understand the very nature of the chaos, mentioned by Kant in his quotation. The E (F flat) chaos is sound, it is noise to be exact, radio static, with God inside you being music, each of you a symphony, nature a symphony. God's world is nature, all quantum's of time, a product of the God given C sharp sound in harmony with everything.

If you can, do the following: Turn on a radio, and turn on the T.V and turn the sound down on the T.V at first and try and watch it with the radio going. Now turn the sound up on the TV, now know of every problem humanity faces whether a crime, a disease, a violent act, stupid governments etc. Know all are caused by a single sound around us inside us all of the time UNHEARD BY THE NAKED EAR.

The noise, causing us so much trouble, is the tone of E. Everything else in the universe is a musical harmony, based on the upper partial overtones, below the threshold of human hearing, accompanying the tones of C.

Since late 1995 God's universe sized mind has taken me on a giant Sherlock Holmes like hunt, through all manner of media for the clues God has placed to enable you to fashion this world, into a perfect world system.

This book is filled with the outcome of this search and I am beginning to tell you about the way recently in which God works within the mind of writer's of books and movies.

Now you understand the basic application of God's secret art, of God's code, embedded, into everything everywhere. I will tell you of my amazing journey to this book full of knowledge of an original nature.

Everything you see is attached to the curved cinema like white or colors image inside your eyes outer skin.

All You need to know is nothing here on planet Earth is in its natural, normal state due the presence of the E driven receiving and transmitting aerials embedded into the planet Earth at strategic locations magnetic. Less than two thousand years ago the planet, became physically compromised by an enemy of the human form, hell bent on preventing humanity everywhere, from entering into a universal spirit of friendship, of all, of these outposts, of humanity. None before this enemy attack knew of disease or the physical capacity to carry out an act of violence, or emotional attack, by man or by woman. To achieve their goal and win this war they chose to dig into the earth steel aerials to take in and transmit a negative magnetic causing sound signal. A noise tone known as both F flat and as E. This sound turned the Earth's normal natural positive twinpole magnetism into a negative and a positive polarity planet. For God here and beyond here to do His job, providing everything you see, and think, and hear, everything must have two parts positive magnetic.

As soon as their diabolical task was completed amnesia took over us, but unknown to these sadistic criminals God's secret art kicked on into highest gear to give them no chance in heaven of an out (a plan B).

In a book called Harmonic 33, by a New Zealand aircraft pilot called Bruce Cathie, there is an undersea photograph of the main E signal aerial in our midst, taken on the 29th of August 1964 by the crew of an undersea telecommunication's surveying ship called Eltanin, being the name as Egyptain's we gave to the North pole star, this was not a coincidence, of thousands being given by God, laying in the necessary steps, for this war to be ended, off the coast of South America, by cutting the top of this aerial off at its base. The position given as latitude 59 degrees 08' south, longitude 105 degrees 00 west.

A proof

The outer ring of light data outside of your sun (E worm hole) is much hotter than the suns (black hole heat only sink hole), Middle Earth (and one ring to rule over them all) fire. This is because in a normal natural, not at Failsafe reality, the Earth's molten magnetic core provides color data all over the planet during the day, and a twilight at night for picnics everywhere to celebrate the day of COLOR and of SOUND by God, who is presently at war in our many and growing daily at the time the enemy came along heavens. God's C sharp translation of heaven is haven. God's gift of himself to us all. They were so sure of themselves they never had an out, a plan B. Don't make a mistake they have reduced the power of light (color and sound data) which travels into your eyes, ears and skin. This war against humanity by them is a psychological warfare. The two dice rolling family board game Sangreal is your first weapon, as it makes a bond between the living and those who have since long ago passed on. The living today together physically around a table conversing on many a topic, brought up during play by the hundreds of quotations and subjects on ghosts and all manner of the state called extrasensory perception. The game sangreal is so much fun I had to rewrite the rules to place ugly thoughts Inside them player's out of the game for an egg timer. To see the game being played go to QofS.Org.

Another proof

During a total eclipse of the sun by our able to ring like a hollow bell like the Earth moon. Which goes on a massive figures of eight path through space-time to align with this worm hole sun and perform this event on our behalf, on God's behalf. Being when the moon covers the face of the sun, as a blackhole (worm hole) plug, in this moment, every clock pendulum in the world circles backwards in its correct natural normal, as seen by a bird from above slight rotation of its hanger rod, and it is said people place white hotel sheets on the ground to watch the waves of shadow, black light playing on the Earth's surface.

In the order in which I saw them. The code inside Jack Reacher. Was all about the revealing more to me of the data blueprint of instructions how to produce free clean abundant wireless magnetic power, and also, the beginning of a little pure God's secret art given consciousness engineering for me to contemplate.

The Life of Pi decoded revealed the fact water is God's physical consciousness, and the math equations by two I have worked out are a correct understanding of Pi and Phi and the English alphabet, coupled with the primes and the Fibonacci numbers making up the math basis of God's mind.

And now let me get into the way in which my life goes normally all the time, formed by God out of the gamma radiation existing behind the E made black tar mask of space-time, tar translates T/time and ar/sound only black. Yes, I will now show you some of how God's favorite Hollywood movies of all the movies it was Jack Reacher through Tom Cruise which let flow the most relevant and important to us embedded God Code into the weave of dialogue, of writing and of directed scene setup's.

The movie Jack Reacher from a Lee Child's book had the red baron in it, translated equals, the red shift of E and the cross on his planes wings as the E aerial. Also the C church bells ringing below in the village as these lyrics go, and also the counter top bell in the auto parts shop ringing out its upper partial tones just as in my Logarithm For Everything Equation.

Also muscle talk|E parasite, Darpp 32 gene, the gene of the evolution of human consciousness, cell (E) never stops growing, the Zec E prisoner human being's. Sweet spot bullet target, centered on top of the human spine, and the Medulla|future C sharp input of God's data Matrix movie like.

NOW leaving movie decoding aside for the moment I will show you how powerful God must be to make the point I am trying to make here, I now write from my day to day notes. All this the morning after I wrote on a card the goal to be the inventor of wireless power.

MY SERENDIPITY NOTES

Elderly gentleman with his walking stick asked me for Selley's putty. I led him to the bay with the putty, I said to the Selley's representative who was also there, this putty reminds me of the American silly putty used to seal over a gasoline leak in the movie Cocoon.

Today for the first time, I saw on my right palm lines coming together as if laid on top of my normal life lines, it looks like a very tall alien I have seen before in a Hollywood movie some time back.

Customer at 9 AM asked me if some green colored wood screws in a plastic packet were galvanized, in his hand he had a very powerful magnet. He placed it near the clear plastic of the packet and the screws leapt upwards to the magnet. He placed the magnet on the steel shelf brace. Neither of us could get it off, until I used a long screw as a lever into the hole in the middle of the magnet to easily get it off.

God inside us all, worked away, inside the consciousness of this man to bring this event into my life, to instruct me, to think, about wireless power all I could using contemplation the highest form of thinking. The packet of screws were brand Zenith (symbol denotes decoding translation of word preceding symbol) the point on a celestial sphere directly above the observer (the C signature. Surrounding by way of gravity as positive magnetism, as data. Every wholeness of every living or inanimate thing. A culmination, a sum, a total of parts making the whole, each a wholeness of energy = $C33 + 16$ overtones including E. Treated pine, countersunk, rib head screw/waves of sound, of data, of God, of electromagnetism, of C/blue shift outwards as positive magnetic energy, and E/red shift inwards as negative magnetic energy of the Earth.

The man with the powerful magnet said he was using it and others to hold onto a piece of plastic rain cover/E static/microwave, cosmic dust to hold static/E down and out of the wireless power picture. He said he was going to place steel reinforcing inside the plastic cover. God Code translated: Re/ra in/E red FORCING/180 degree phase shift of E sound to reinstate C/see/Earth's positive magnetic aurora reestablished.

With another customer I dropped a steel pipe saddle behind a stack of very heavy galvanized pipe, he went to reach in, I said not to bother, as he would not get his arm through, He then said, "Get a magnet".

Next customer had a Walt Disney T-shirt on with the dwarf Grumpy on it, then a minute later God marches in another customer with Grumpy on his T-shirt/(decoded) easily, as God knows I would one day like to own Walt Disney and Hanna Barbera and Marvel Comics to use the characters to educate kids all over the world about all God can do for everyone together, as one, as there can be only one quickening secret art (God's presence and essence) inside your mind.

A staff member in the lunch room is reading a book called "The Twelve"/light of C. On its cover there is a photo of a moon led total eclipse of the E black-hole, called the sun (E enemy made worm hole).

Life of Pi movie (book)/Pi math/= water/= God. Prometheus movie/star enemy of God and all human civilizations = water as tar/TIME and E sound/past time tense only.

Customer asks for a measuring tape while another is holding his elbow as a measurement of a new basin/= the measurement used to build The Great Pyramid, was the length of the Pharaoh's arm from his wrist to his elbow.

Customer who asked me for some tap indicator dials colored. Red/E signal and blue JC# (C sharp) signal was carrying a T.V aerial cable in his hand = wireless Power System Blueprint encoded in a stone drawing inside an Egyptian tomb.

My daughter suggesting I watch some of the video's called "Ancient Alien's gave me all I needed for my wireless power invention at the end of the fourth episode I paused the video on the photograph of the Egyptian hieroglyph depicting a huge energy device, this invention was shown within The Great Pyramid and outside the walls of the pyramid, there is an extra line separating humanity from more than one depicted E enemy; alien creatures intent on harming us.

The device was shown having a lotus flower, in one part of this C led protective power circuit.

I googled lotus flower and began to read; I decoded the information. The roots of the lotus go right down into the muddy E mire of the bottom of the water its flower rises above this mud representing the chaos brought by the E signal. The Egyptian blue lotus is the symbol of spontaneous generation of the presently masked by E; C signal energy of the Earth's molten core, the center seed pod of the lotus looking like a watering can spout equalling the full power of God's C (sea) available at the removal of E. And then there was the Pharaoh's message, the lotus has a remarkable ability to regulate its flowers to within a narrow range. The E is infrared, the lotus maintained a temperature of 30 to 35 degrees Celsius even when the air temperature dropped to 10 degrees Celsius.

When I gazed at a photo of the lotus seed head I was reminded of the undulating frozen landscapes produced on an angle beyond normal level water experiments of mine.

Then after working at home on the lotus flower, I went to KFC to get some fries. On the store's video screen the song playing had its title on the screen, as "FLOWER".

My research to decode this hieroglyph continued; the lotus is so robust it can sprout after centuries of exposure to low-dose gamma purple = red plus blue = purple. Being the missing 70% dark energy found lying behind the black = TAR/TIME and E sound mask, space-time curtain.

Moon hollow, rang like a bell for ages when the astronauts accidentally touched their landing craft down too hard.

The wavy line form shown inside the large bulb like section is the waveform of C sharp. Also in the drawing in stone there is an easily seen set of insect like antenna's carved out touching the C# waveform.

Each part of the wholeness we call everything, fits together, as an encoded blueprint of a greater second, everything decoded wholeness and this hieroglyph is a complete wireless positive magnetism power circuitry blueprint.

I have filed a provisional patent, which details my proposed novel, original invention of wireless power.

When successfully proven the cost in royalty payments to me for appliances, computers, cars, trucks, trains, buses, household lighting and heating devices etc. Will be in trillions of dollars yearly, my idea is to give a share of these royalties to those individuals who successfully make my wireless power invention a proof.

Towards this end I have made an artwork which will serve as a share of royalty certificate for your achievement the certificate is called a Golden Ticket in respect for the Egyptians and the Mayans. Also I have filed a provisional patent for my new born infant lung tissue, pure C sharp genetic anti-mutation antibiotic. The same competition to prove its effectiveness. It will be free when the time is right.

Also on page 399 of my Bible (God Code physics manual). JOB: Chapter 40: verse 15. Look at the behemoth. God Code decoded = to remove E look to the tone of B emanating from the mouth of a so-called black (worm) hole. More on this at the end section of this book, and by way of your own Google search about the recent discovery of a so-termed black-hole emitting, yes, a B sound tone coming out of it. Also same chapter in Job. Verses 21 to 24 under the LOTUS plants he lies hidden among the reeds (reads of this book) in the marsh, the lotuses conceal him in their shadow, the poplars by the stream surround him when the river rages (my frozen tap water experiment hill-like surface divides negative and positive magnetism) he is not alarmed, he is secure, though Jordan (E red shift) should surge against his (the tone [note] of B) mouth. Time on clock when written was exactly 10.44, all new God Code forever. For sure, it's all tipping back up inside the Old Testament Bible, as physics manual for sure (shore = safe haven in God).

In regards to my Sangreal family dice board game, it is engineered by God to give forth God's presence when two or more creative, open-minded, right-brained individuals' are gathered together physically.

Today at work after thinking not much magic like I have told you about had happened when a customer saw me from a distance, he approached me, when near, he said one word to me "MAGNETS".

Also today I captured a belief system of mine and nipped it in the bud by simply doing so and a small contemplation of not to think this way ever again. It was the belief I was always leaving important things to be doing, towards my set in motion goals, too late in the day, or other times out of time to get them done.

NOW! TURN YOUR PERSONALITY INTO A MENTAL MAGNET AUTOMATICALLY DRAWING
FRIENDS POWER LOVE AND MONEY
FAR BEYOND YOUR FONDEST
DREAMS INTO YOUR LIFE OVERNIGHT!

YES HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO LITERALLY MAGNETIZE THE SCATTERED DISORGANIZED POWERS OF YOUR PERSONALITY OVERNIGHT!
TO FOCUS AT A SINGLE SITTING YOUR INTELLECT, YOUR WILL POWER AND YOUR PERSONALITY TO GAIN
WHATEVER GOAL YOU WANT OUT OF LIFE!

And in so doing.

GAIN TOWERING PERSONAL POWER OVER YOURSELF AND OTHERS
OVERNIGHT!

And do it as simply, as logically, as inevitably as this.

I know of course it is impossible for you to believe at this moment, you can develop such DAZZLING PERSONALITY and DRIVE overnight, you can attract the conveniences of life to you through the empowerment you will gain, through the way of play.

You can develop such INVINCIBLE WILLPOWER you can simply smash obstacles right out.
Of your path as though you were brushing a fly off your forehead.

Circling around the “GREAT THOUGHTS” cards we find a host of historical characters and their points of view, as passed on down to us through the ages.

When you bounce your own points of view off the subjects presented by these cards you are engaging your personality in a special way. Endowing you with the ability to tackle life's tasks in a positive new way this is a mystical experience, you can undergo, every time, you sit down with a few friends to play.

I realize these promises appear incredible to you at first glance UNTIL YOU UNDERSTAND THESE FACTS. The creator of this entirely new, entirely different board game is Marc Stewart who is a Consciousness Engineer.

TREMENDOUS PERSONAL POWER LIES HIDDEN DORMANT WITHIN YOUR PERSONALITY RIGHT NOW! HERE AT LAST IS SANGREAL THE BOARD GAME WHICH FOCUSES AND UNLEASHES THOSE POWERS WITH ALL THE FORCE OF AN EXPLODING VOLCANO!

How does the Sangreal way of play transform lazy unfocused easily fatigued minds into throbbing dynamos of personality?

The answer is simple it provides all its players with the gift of ASSOCIATION. It promotes fellowship, companionship, and social intercourse, uniting all players for the common purpose of accessing the kind of person you want to be, the ideal you.

This idealized self-identity bubbles up to the surface during the heated conversations generated by the games play when a player reads an Sangreal quotation and presents their comment drawn from within their own personality driven unique individual life experiences.

Having formed a mental ASSOCIATION between their personal related ideas and feelings on important current issues affecting us all today, and the content of the original quotation as generated from within the personality of its original historical creator.

Now presented during the games play as if our lives have been frozen in time and our only saving grace is our ability as players of this game of life to ponder form and express our personal and unique to us, mental associations.

Between the hypnotic often counter intuitiveness of daily thought and our curiosity-driven explorations into the untapped 85% of human potential.

Available through Sangreal's special personality empowering way of play.

All you have to do one day is place your order for your very own BEAUTIFULLY PRODUCED boxed set of "Sangreal."

YOU HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE! A WHOLE NEW WORLD OF PERSONALITY POWER TO GAIN! PLAY THE BOARD GAME SANGREAL. . . BEAUTIFUL THINKING!

In each boxed set...
You get all the cards complete with their original artwork, you get all the cards printed on quality card,
you get all the playing pieces,
you get the tiny voting spheres,

you get the Sangreal Holy Grail spirit-measure voting cup,
you get a full set of “Sangreal” cards, you get seven sets of “Hallows” cards and seven sets of “Virtue” cards, you get the “The Way of Play” rules booklet, you get a handmade playing board made of a photographic image of the original handcrafted wooden playing board.

Sangreal board game . . . some do . . .
some don't have a beautiful mind!

Earth is an Engine

The planet Earth itself makes the magnetic data you call sunshine, and the sun above in deep space is a black (worm) hole, a C sharp energy portal (sinkhole) of our enemies making easily proven by the fact of the outermost ring of heat around the outside of the sun is hotter than the positive magnetism flowing from Earth into the hole itself.

And I need not say this more than once! Due to the presence of the E aerials your minds are hypnotized into a trance-like state of non-trueself.

THE SANGREAL BOARD GAME IS GOD'S TOOL OF CONSCIOUSNESS ENGINEERING.

Together you must make the data traveling into your eyes as light and as sound into your ears stronger for you all, to be free of disease and the capacity for violence. And now for the subconscious insight from God thought, thinking is everything, you are the creators on behalf of the creative ongoing power of God, of nature, by way, of LOVE making SOUND when changing COLORS by way of SOUND as a stream of water flowing around rocks which should be making the sound of the word BE, meaning existence, existence being made of quantums of time.

Presently you have the water (God) inside and outside you making the incorrect for you E tone alone driven sound of the word IS, just like the Holy Grail cup, there can be only one source of human ready consciousness. In the state of is everything is in the past tense of time, making the unwanted E sound of IS. It was in late 1995 when I wrote down the two key energy signatures operating inside this one universe; C and E, one belonged, the other did not, one of them E the only cause of every single problem you are living with daily across this world.

It was just a couple of years ago when the NASA CMB probe gathered the same data I knew from deepest space to assist you to get a true handle on whatever dark energy is made of, and the Nasa CMB probe recorded two unique energy signatures, best at the time described as the musical tone, beautiful waveform of C Sharp and the unwanted noise jagged waveform of F flat, otherwise known to me as the enemy E tone alone as noise static dust.

Cover both your ears with the palms of your hands and you will hear the shrill ringing sound of C belonging there, but also you will hear the humming sound of E not belonging inside any living thing and if you draw a simple bar magnet to show the negative half to be a flow always inwards. When you draw the ever outward flowing positive side you will find for such a set up of energy flow by two you will clearly see the Earth is the positive energy producer and all of this outwards flow is flowing away into the black worm hole, this black worm hole being in fact the sun.

Now for God's "C" sound power when we have removed the top of the enemy of Earth's ship Eltanin found E aerial.

You will have a world everywhere instantly free of . . . physical and mental disease, free of drug companies, free of doctors and surgeons, free of fear, free of paranoia, free of stress, free of jealousy, free of greed, free of lying, free of cheating, free of negativity, free of depression, free of infertility, free of cloning, free of evolutionism, free of creationism, free of aging, free of religion, free of politics, free of laws, free of police, free of security agency's, free of dependance on alcohol, free of dependance on drugs, free of petty crime, free of murder, free of rape, free of abuses of women and children, free of political intolerance, free of religious intolerance, free of racism, free of terrorism, free of suicide-bombing, free of slavery, free of forced prostitution, free of child labor, free of starvation, free of dehydration, free of poverty, free of war, free of earthquakes, free of tornados, free of hurricanes, free of global warming, free the sea creatures sick from the pollutions, we have poured, into their watery home, free of genocide, free from losses of unique species, free of having to cut down oxygen generating rain forests, free of our need to extract massive amounts of material from within the Earth, free of torture, free of imprisonment, free of coercion, free of subversion, free of electric shock therapy, free of mental institutions., free of labotomys of the brain, with an ice pick, free of throw away plastic fantastic products lasting only five minutes, and leaving us free to rejuvenate our evironment, free to not drive creatures from their homes, free from slaughtering animals for sport or caging them, free from killing whales, free of bullying, free of the need to hound with cameras, free of false and sensationalism driven news reports, free of critics, free of judging, free of stand-over tactics, free of endless self-interests at the expense of others, free of invasions of privacy, free of interrogation, free of subjugation, free of feuding, free of dependance on oil, free of dependance on coal, free of dependance on nuclear power, free of revenge, free of grudges, free of the class systém, free of statis seeking, free of the moral high ground, free of covert operations, free of assassinations, free of cold war, free of therapy, free of false diagnosis, free of diagnosis, free of failure to provide human rights, free of the surgeons knife, free of rules and regulations, free of red-tape, free of bureaucratic bungling, free of paradoxes, and the list of what we are about to be free of goes on!

With all your so-called communication capabilities this E aerial system is trying to keep you alone, far from physical contact with each other, as when you are physically together playing Sangreal the C sharp only tone of God is with you and you will be thinking with your lonely at the moment right-brain, due to the E amongst you left- hemisphere of your brain.

Belief in God (good) is fine, but back into E with all else due to the presence of the E aerials, as E does not want you to ever look towards God, to have a positive thought for yourself never there to be a positive upbeat enthusiastic energy manner, of thinking, of total confidence in your own mind to solve all problems placed before you end of the E story, E wants you to place all your power into the hands of some kind of belief system in another being other than your own self.

Your E enemy has stolen away from you yourselves with your own thoughts, discernment's, points of relativity, uncommon, common associations. You can all watch the same movie you can all read the same book article, watch a news report, see a documentary on the television, but you cannot all come together physically to talk together as one body of people about how you want to see this or other changes made in this world. What E alone has done is take the thoughts you used and scramble them up, mixing them with God's pure mathematics. The E enemy took the word good, took the O out and turned it into a zero as math and changed the concept of good into their concept of God and set up universities as Trojan horses, yes this experience is an E tone of sound driven experience. E works its left hemisphere only ways to stop university educated minds from finding out the answers I have written for you all in this book, your very wits and commonsense stolen away from you. The E system thinking is spreading through you indoctrinating, brainwashing your best young minds. And for physicists the world over, there is a very beautiful for you all to behold experiment, with ordinary fresh tap water in a plastic or metal bucket, and kids take hold of your parents and tell them you just want to borrow the freezer part of the fridge for a frozen water experiment everyone is doing. The one I have at home here is like a hillside, like on Easter Island, and there is a copy of the Earth as a magnetic soccer ball with a small bubble on its very top dead center underneath the top most surface.

There is a childrens game called simply Pick Up Sticks. There are 41 colored plastic sticks in a pack, I brought 3 packs of these pick up sticks so I would have 123. Anti-gravity is as easy as 123, A.B.C with them, you start the game on the table or whatever flat surface you want to use for this game, then when ready you simply grab them all together standing up in your hands tightly. Then take your hands away and let them fall as they will flat on top of themselves all a mix of colors onto the playing surface, but when I let them go the second time after playing the game once, a strange and very wonderful thing happened, in each pack there is only one black stick, which you can use to tease out hard to move slowly other colored sticks. When I let go of the second bundle the black one was by itself in the air, its point only touching the fibre of the carpet. Held up by MAGNETISM, it was alone on an angle of about 22 degrees.

After leaving this bundle for many hours, I bundled them up again and released them once more, this time none of them reached the playing surface, all choosing to stay fixed at about an angle of an about 40 degrees. Don't make the mistake of thinking I know everything about what this means, I am not a university trained physicist. Nature has taught me its version of physics, but it is time to get really excited about things like world travel through Stargates, or like being able to turn concrete or tar made roadways into grass ways with small hedge rows to show the way cars anti-gravity hovering above the grass may travel or how about a ship like the Millennium Falcon of Star Wars fame designed inside like a passenger flight bus to take people from Paris to New York and around Saturn in a few minutes, skimming like a kid's flat rock thrown just above the ocean, or a Star Trek Voyager ship built to take people on a tour around the Milky Way and back for a short walk on the moon.

The key to teleportation Stargates is as follows when I am taking photos of my art works I wait until the natural visual data is just right then I click the shutter button to open. Same also in the movie The Lake House, there is a scene in a hospital between father and son, both architect's talking about how you would not put this or other building in New York if designed for Paris, because the light is different everywhere you go. Hello Earth people, Stargates, teleportation, energize, Star Fleet Federation science a portent.

I began to enter God's mind in late 1995. I had books open all over the house and was taking down lots of notes, it was like being in the middle of a great mind mental storm. I went to a store and brought a 2 liter plastic jug, I filled it to near the top and placed it inside the freezer. The next morning I took it out of the freezer, it was solid ice but there was something not quite the way it should be, the top surface was not flat, not level, the top of this frozen water was on a slope. The water had travelled uphill and had frozen there, it was a grassy hill. I can see the grass on this hill passing the toes of the statue people who look so funny on Easter Island. I took the jug and held it up underneath the kitchen's electric light bulb, the light traveling through the ice made a purple colored ring around the bottom of the plastic jug, just then, my 9 and 10 year old daughter's came running into the kitchen, I put the jug down as they took me outside by their hands, out onto the lawn. They pointed up at the morning sky. I looked up at the sky to see it was the same color purple as the jug. This was my introduction to the life subconsciously in front of me, a sea of purple light. I thought to myself I must learn to keep my thoughts correct as I did not mind being responsible for the jugs purple but I was kind of being told in a kind of a hint, I was involved, in the purple sky also, all driven by my willpower towards healing my grandfather and my mother and the massive amount of ill people on this planet.

It is said the subconscious (God's creative mind) is close to madness. Another time later on in months I began to be interested in thefeat of Hillary and Tenzing when they reached the top of Everest. I realized as always I was interested in observation, interested in things to do with light.

I thought about Hillary and Tenzing eventually taking photos from the top of this the highest point to stand on. At the time they were up there I became interested in stars for some reason and had learned subconsciously always to follow through on a hunch. So I contacted someone from the local observatory where they had a big telescope and asked what stars were in the sky when Hillary and Tenzing were taking photos, and to my surprise there were two stars seen by Hillary and Tenzing only due to Albert Einstein's bending of light (color data) idea.

The two stars were named by God's secret code as Mizar and Alcor, I translated Alcor to mean L core or = lights core and Mizar meaning the same sounding translation being. Miss Ar (sound data as violet gamma) & Miss Ra (color data as purple gamma) = lights central core = L core, being the color tones alone, chosen by God to be God's purple for justice alone tone's of the two separate different to each other positive magnetic selves, two different hues likened unto an artist reaching for the color purple, just as if a kid telling you about how to mix colors from the primary colors.

Every color has a set in concrete form as God chooses another shade, another hue, another sound tone of Himself, being almost exactly the same and these two only different colors needing a special mention because each to each other are like twins and like twins from any world of life they have their own secret language they alone know and therefore, alone understand together and I do know what it is but we are going to place these languages under God secret art. God's color being purple hued gamma rays (Alcor translated) and violet hued gamma brain waves (Mizar translated) behind the black of space-time, getting by the E electricity loving enemy. I have done lots of frozen water experiments, one a self portrait of a face of mine.

Just to show you how a normal day with your subconscious goes, I was waiting on a car of ours to get the brakes fixed I was thinking about how to remove the capacity for physical and emotional violence from the world. I took a walk along to a local car sales yard. I looked at all the cars for sale and eventually brought a new second hand car. Some week or two later I decided to sell it as it used a lot of gas. I always prided myself on making good decisions and could not work out why I had brought this car. Then on the day I had sold it I was looking through the car to clean it out before taking it back to the car yard, when in the glove compartment box I found an old bill of sale for this car. And on this bill of sale was the number plate of the trade-in vehicle, being the personal car word plate AURORA. The heavenly Nexus kindly magnetic God data (LOVE) displaying His purple and violet to me, being God's power of two positive magnetic polarities, being Miss Ar around the jugs bottom outer ring only holding the secret of human healing by way of these gamma waves in the human brain with Miss Ra in the sky same all over for me on the morning of my first frozen water uphill experiment, made by the Earth's magnetic field, which is everything I am studying all of the time. Well I hope these stories are enough at the moment.

I met a university biology professor and asked him straight out if he was looking for the perfect DNA?

To become a God kind of a person you need first to learn as God gives, and this is why He (magnetic data) gave you a hint of the twilight zone you will enter when you do what a God driven person does and you did something subconsciously, you obtained this book. The key word here is curiously but not just your curiously but the curiously of every living thing.

And a really big clue is everything being what it is; is understood in wood (trees) for the Earth's trees are the silent SENTINALS (C aerials) of this world and all worlds. As for any miracle able to happen to you, you must hold it in the most reverence you can muster up AND REALLY HONOR THE TREES PEOPLE on God's behalf, but when you want to pray you must pray to God, none other, as simple as this is to do what is right, Being! To do the right thing by God and honor God's FEAT! I have God's wish. My prayer is to remove disease and violence from all the world, a feat I cannot do without the help of all the men and women all over this world. Women being God's gift to us all on this planet. I would not have written this book or made the Sangreal board game E thinking all the time. I am dangling on the end of a FISH hook, like a dolphin or a whale on a harpoons hook when for myself the consciousness of a woman of great virtue who can find her?

She is God's quickening of your life, without woman there is no life possible.

She is the egg and the incubator and the best quantum entangled consciousness on the planet. Color and sound data as God's thinking as big as this whole universe answering prayers when the E enemy created characters stand in instead of God: Thou shalt have no other Gods before me. Being all E hurts (Hertz) of one too many watts (what now?) of magnetic data (colors and sounds by infinity math). As God knows your prayer before your knees hit the ground, the gesture given is for something special to be guided to the answer, for your prayers follow-up be impulsive to the first out of the everyday thoughts coming along you need to be in a permanent state of wonder; to enter this state of wonder permanently you must see everything as fitting into a large jigsaw puzzle and this is impossible. As there is only one key (C33) to simplistic desire, being through God contemplation, being the only big word kids need to find out they are naturals at as early as possible.

It is the impossible you must get used to doing because God does the impossible physically not only mentally. You must get this very important fact into your thinking all of the time as you must learn to expect the unexpected in the era of the post Mayan calendar.

And just to give you a gift here to show how much you will enjoy being a subconscious God inspired cool person in the making, doing what a subconscious loving, giving, person does and learning about this world you have been born into for this I have another story for you, to show you the absolute power God has. Just imagine everything real and living is all concrete adults, yes! This is a controlled environment, my daughters and I had just moved house and were in the front garden when we noticed Dot my oldest daughters female ginger cat sitting looking like the Sphinx statue side on; top of the front steps up to the house. We looked near us and saw some rocks out of place from where the other rocks like them were against the wall of the house. I began to move these rocks one at a time. I accidentally dropped one my first thought was amazement I had dropped it, and my second thought was I wondered what is inside the rock. Now having a chance to see into its middle by the broken bits. I picked up a piece and saw to my surprise the rock broke into the shape of the side on look of the Sphinx itself in Egypt. This was God playing with me and it was kind of scary to behold such power, to change anything at His will, at His choice and now He is at play with you and the reverence does not go to Dot or to me or to you do not make this mistake God deserves the credit. Seen at marcsfineart.com.

No one knows where the wind comes from or where it is going, the wind represents the power of magnetism and if you can find a picture on Google images of the Earths magnetic tear-drop envelope skin enclosing the visual and sound data made by God and remember the sun is the E enemies Earth made sunlight sink hole into their world, the Sun is their black worm hole trying to steal away the light the Earth's magnetic engine has made away from here, away from you all, and don't worry God as data runs this whole reality for us all but as you might have guessed there is a problem with this reality.

And whenever anyone tries to assist to make things in this world better by helping out in even the smallest of ways then God Immediately takes you up into a friendship partnership and helps to show you what it is like to be a cool subconscious genius in the making, and if you stick to God's secret C # musical radio aerial's data God will stick to you in even more wonderful ways then I have told you here already. Now hard as it will be, I want you to remember what being a subconscious driven person is all about being the flow of thoughts into the empty space you call your mind, have a little confidence now. And it will be enough to kick you off into subconscious THINKING. But first another story highlighting the role played around you by living creatures and living plants and rocks and things. I was in a big living room in a house owned by the local church we had rented this house. I was sorting through hundreds of pages of notes when I noticed Dot the cat had been sitting in the one spot for about half an hour, but then I noticed she was sitting on the top of an overturned page of mine on an A4 (US letter) sized sheet of white office paper. I carefully removed Dot off the paper. I turned the paper over to be shocked to read the only three words on the paper, being IT'S ALL DOTS (pixels of color). What came first, what my daughters cat Dot can do? Or the less than 2,000 years ago Egyptain King Tutankhamen's love for cats? God is all hexagonal dots visually and waves, of circles sound wise. Meaning the universe is not made of atoms, or neutrons, or protons, or electrons and lots of other particles, in fact. What is real is everything you see is projected off hexagonal shaped colored dots on the complete looping surface of Mobius rings and likewise on spheres small enough to go inside the Mobius rings. And this is where we must be careful when thinking it is clever to create artifical things.

SIMPLE IF IT DOES NOT LOOK LIKE SOMETHING OUT OF NATURE OR NORMAL OR ORDINARY ENOUGH IT DOES NOT BELONG HERE ON EARTH.

Well just how does one learn to help God out in his big mission to heal the whole universe and everything in it? God saw everything but saw it was not all good, what was good made music, what was bad made noise like something God could only call static (dust). And if you don't know what static looks like or sounds like on a radio ask an adult to show you how to see it on a T.V and do an artwork on any size canvas or any hands onto board or paper.

If you can hear it on a radio if you cannot get a T.V to do it and know God saw some parts of himself were not whole, light was traveling too slow, no longer a positive magnetic only, being in a quantum entanglement with the negative magnetism of E (electricity).

And it was about an even half of itself, God listened carefully and gave the musical note of C sharp to everything still good music. God discovered the unwanted dangerous to humans noise was the tone of E otherwise known as flat.

Cells

Now Cell division involves DNA replication, but if the DATA the stream, the flow of INFORMATION IN COMMUNICATION (light) is incorrect, then you have disease, violence, negativity, doubts, fears and so on and so forth. The problem is a simple one of one physical cause, being the presence of the E tone receiving and transmitting aerials embedded into the Earth's crust at critical positions magnetically speaking. But first I present you with a likening of the human physical system-to-system communication you all know well enough now, for me to make clear the reason why your human system has been placed into an inharmonious state of affairs likened to the following description which also applies to each of you as seeing yourself as one huge kind of big cell.

There are two cell/phone network providers, each cell/phone of each separate individual user relies on all DATA moving in the God light into our eyes data filled water, between each cell and the DNA to have a safe uninterrupted passage between all their phone users, each human cell, indeed every cell in the entire phone network of cells within you around you requires pristine messages to function correctly to ensure pristine well being within the network transmitting, and receiving messages by way of the network through light, throughout water are having all DNA phone messages scrambled unbeknownst to all these cells. All signals traveling back and forth inside the blood stream being transports of signals from DNA's double helix DATA train on the one positive magnetic rail hovering off the rail in mid air anti-gravity system through neuron cells inside your brains to each to every cell within you bumping into stray alien E enemy sound signals (your real radio, television and cellphone system stations) in the atmosphere in the blood stream. Being transported magnetically as generated by an unwelcome rogue E made cell phone service provider system piggybacking in the atmosphere, an atmosphere, a blood stream supposed to be only serving the one allowed 555 Hz ball park cell-phone network, this one only network at 555 Hz has been set up over thousands of years of inventive trial and error. Showing unequivocally only one-network by atmosphere, by blood stream. As the atmosphere, and the blood stream itself are only designed for a one-network-system of DATA transfer within it. Each cell within your blood stream simply the electro E and the magnetic C sharp splitting into two separate messages inside each cell. In other words the dual negative positive configuration of the electromagnetic spectrum is wrong for us and very wrong for light.

Whilst the rogue cell-phone provider hertz 666 (640 radio static inside the Earth's Song) ball park is present in the mix all cells neurons included without saying are receiving two separate entirely different stream's of DATA into themselves; C & E at the same time, all the time. This alone is creating disharmony within each of your cells from a human way of looking at it. Believe me when I tell you it is like living your life 24/7 listening to two separate and different radio stations at the same time, playing different songs and giving the hourly news cast in a different order at the same time. You can use the board game Sangreal to counter the E radio noise playing all of the time.

The cell problem is magnified because the cells instructions from the DNA are to receive the DATA flowing into it, responding accordingly to the instructions being given as it is receiving two DATA inputs every moment of its lifetime; each cell forced to choose between the two streams of data as to which set of data to follow, as it is not programmed to sort out more than one stream of incoming DATA. Perpetuating a human C system corruption seen now in an ever growing cascade of errors within all cells, some of the time within you or in at least in some, always havoc is created by the E forcing your cells to make this, or the other chemical protein L CAR HOLE (NOTHING) milkshake, WHERE THE ENEMY PARASITE HANGS OUT INSIDE YOUR PANCREOUS to disrupt your path towards your health and other daily and long term goals you have in mind for yourself to reach. Think about it, food goes in and as much almost of the volume of the food comes out your other end, so what is happening inside Middle Earth? I have placed this writing alone away from the writing about two streams of data traveling into the cells because I need you to know something else when a cell seemingly exactly duplicates itself.

It is not making a copy always, it is mostly casting off a half of itself to serve as food as it continues onwards in its data input fight, and these cells are removed by the body as waste. The cells will always do this, but it is the rate, the E enemy is forcing upon us being the concern for the planet's natural systems receiving this waste product.

There can only be one C stream of water not E murder in the water. Murder spelled backwards is redrum (watch the movie The Shining) in the blood stream!

Never ever are any of you deemed to do well under these two streams of DATA of different colored blood cells in your blood stream? As detailed, as described herein above.

The large number of people now on the planet makes everything you dive into seem complex when in fact things are simple, the E signal's sound steals away your commonsense, steals away your practical, down to earth nature way of looking, way of seeing things, stealing away, your open-mindness, your true sense of Newton/Einstein/Maxwell led curiosuty. The problem here also stretches its horror into your transistion into heavens anti-chamber. But to make anger and disease go away I need to know in your educated way beyond my taught from within and without, physics and medicine to help me make the simple changes together to the Earth itself to perform a major miracle for all of you so you can experience great joy, everywhere, forever.

From Small Beginnings

Simply put every single cell of your body and brain has been ~~E~~ enemy brainwashed, in a most horrible for you as you should be thinking and feeling way. For adults only, watch the movie

THE EYE (hospital scene) to uncover the truth of how badly I need you to play the board game Sangreal.

Now when I say cell you think DNA and genetic material, but forget it all for this moment, just concentrate on the cell and know every cell has two parts to it.

And two separate streams of data as instructions of what to make and do, and think, passing through, all made possible by the large water (light) content inside us by the large massive amount of white light and a rainbow of colors inside us in support of God's work inside every cell, inside every C sphere. White light providing every separate cells outer envelope key signature reading.

In a physical manner. Yes! Every single cell has two ways of being, the best simplest way to understand these different ways of being, same as you, is to think sometime, in the following way, one half of the cell thinks for the physical, and the other half, thinks for the psychological. There should always be a duality of positive polarity sames in any universe really functioning properly, but know everything here is not in its true form simply because the aurora borealis teardrop envelope surrounding the planet Earth should be correctly magnetised and checked to be so by way of the Kp index readings to be two separate positive polarities of two slightly different, by actions of doing things for you as wet or dry color.

For the Earth magnetism of a positive two thereof of oneness. Magnetism of two subtly different positives moreso, my frozen water experiment shows where each polarity of difference separates out to make it possible for gravity as God positive magnetic color data and sound to push off one another to produce lift and speed and rate of fall of the craft by way of the purple of God's Alcor (light core) and by way of the violet of God's Miss Ar.

Everyone knew there was more to and something mysterious deep down when they first learned about a thing such as can be described, as a black hole and how they suck everything into themselves nearby into it forever to be held trapped there by the force we call the pulling force of gravity.

Gravity as magnetism (light) is important but it is a pushing as well as a pulling force and you know your moon is your best friend here in this universe.

Realize as best you can a couple of things you did not know about this planet called Earth, here in the middle as it turns out of this galaxy. The Earth is a huge magnetism using, magnetism making engine. The whole planet should be daylight all over, the separation called night should be a permanent twilight you can picnic under as a sky different from day for a simple repose, it energizes you in a very special way when you stay awake in it.

They Laughed When I Sat Down At the Game But When I Started to Play! –

"Can he really play?" a player whispered, "Heavens no!" Arthur exclaimed, "He never played a card in his life."

Arthur had just played, the room rang with applause, I decided this would be a dramatic moment for me to make my debut, to the amazement of all my friends, I strode confidently over, to the Sangreal board game and sat down.

"Jack is up to his old tricks," somebody chuckled.
The crowd laughed, they were all certain I couldn't play.

"Can he really play?" I heard a player whisper to Arthur.

"Heavens, no!" Arthur exclaimed, "He never played in all his life... but just you watch him, this is going to be good."

I decided to make the most of the situation, with mock dignity I drew out a silk handkerchief and lightly rubbed the playing pieces. Then I rose and gave the two dice a turn just as I had seen other more experienced player's do around the table.

"What do you think of his execution?" called a spectator near the table.
"We're in favor of it!" came back the answer and those gathered rocked with laughter.

Then I Started to Play!

Instantly a tense silence fell on the guests, the laughter died on their lips, as if by magic. I played through the first Sangreal Great Thoughts card. I heard gasps of amazement, my friends sat breathless -- spellbound!

I played on and as I played, I forgot the people around me, I forgot the hour, the place and the breathless listeners. The little world I lived in seemed to fade - seemed to grow dim - unreal, only the Sangreal was real.

Only the insight and knowledge it brought me, insights as beautiful and as changing as the wind blown clouds and drifting moonlight, which long ago, inspired Sangreals philosophers and other famous historical participants.

It seemed as if their wise counsel was speaking to me, speaking through the medium of the Sangreal in words and the jubilant discussions promoted by the games way of play.

A Complete Triumph!

As the discussions upon the comments I had made upon the Sangreal Great Thoughts card in play died away. The room resounded, with a sudden roar of applause.

I found myself surrounded by excited faces. How my friends carried on! Men shook my hand, wildly congratulating me. Women patted me on the back in their enthusiasm! Everybody was exclaiming with delight, plying me with their rapid questions... "Jack! Why didn't you tell us.

You could play like this?"... "Where did you learn?" "How long have you studied?" "Who was your teacher?"

"I have never even seen my teacher," I replied.
"And just a short while ago I couldn't find a game as stimulating as this board game Sangreal.
"Quit your kidding," laughed Arthur himself an accomplished player, "You've been studying for years, I can tell."
"I have been studying only a short while," I insisted, "I decided to keep it a secret so I could surprise you folks."

Then I told them the whole story!

"You've heard of the creative right hemisphere mind! It's the creative, expressive empowering mind in a man and a woman"

A few of my friends nodded. "That's the untapped potential 95% of the mind, isn't it?" they exclaimed.

"Exactly," I replied, "The way of play of Sangreal board game promotes contact and rapport with this creative mind within, promoting the power of seeing into and understanding things, a practical knowledge, providing the gift of God's thinking . . . a penetrating contemplation you might say."

Sangreal teaches how to play with this silent contemplative Teacher.
And then I explained how for sometime I had longed to play Sangreal.

"A few months ago," I continued, "I read an interesting sales letter on a website called QoS.Org. The Sangreal being a new game, the website showing the special custom made wooden set made to allow the first players of Sangreal to play.

It was during these initial trials the rules were altered to allow the often jubilant manner of play to flow, it sounded so convincing, I placed my order to have the game sent to my house. "Sangreal arrived and I started to study its way of play, I was amazed to see how easy it was to play."

"I found it was just as the sales letter said, as easy as A.B.C.! Before I knew it I was reading all the quotations I liked best, nothing stopped me, I found the Great Thoughts category stimulated, my creative right hemisphere, stirring my silent inner teacher God into action, all with ease! And I never did have any special talent for thinking, this was my first opportunity to play Sangreal.

You too will now teach yourself to be an accomplished player right at home or in the home of friends and family, you can't go wrong with this simple way of play having already shown many satisfied players how to play.

No matter whether you are a mere beginner or already a good conversationalist, you will be interested in playing this new and wonderful board game.

CONSCIOUSNESS IN THE WATER!

And the creators of the script for the movie Darkest Hour were inspired by God, known to each Pharoah, as it was, as soon as the enemy placed here, the steel RAILWAY TRAIN iron aerials embedded into the Earth's crust to act, in the same way as a push in and out steel welding drawer type ARC welding machine, reducing arc (ARK) energy as drawer goes in; yes/. They have turned the Earth from a limitless powerful positive magnetism engine into an electric negative magnetism battery, and as God made human thought is always the builder, in any superhuman, as it should be functioning universe as a wholeness, as a positive polarity energy outflowing, giving from the; there can be only one purple gamma source (dark energy). Being the Earth's C33 plus 16 upper partial overtones C Sharp signal, not the E being F flat signal as electricity against you to suck away your mental, mind given, power for yourselves to use back where it belongs. Come on, think about this for a moment, everything around you as objects, with a name and a function.

All your, I can do this with things, will save you, in this exercise in the physics of consciousness engineering, is it really so hard to understand God has placed Himself inside every word in the English language.

EVERY THOUGHT YOU HAVE IS PERFECT FOR YOU UNLESS YOU THINK OTHERWISE.

And as Micheal Faraday worked out, everything is magnetic, and everything works together by way of magnetism made of TIME as God's C and TIME (C) and THE KNOWING are made of pure God data.

God being the Alpha (L for language) and the Omega (Oh my Ga [God]).

Waters third mysterious component part human and God consciousness contains the exact same things your human thoughts contain. You use God's pure thought data as this pure water to make everything inside you and around you you can see and touch. Yes, inside God are quantums of TIME, each a molecule, each a quantum of positive twinpole magnetic data. Quantums of TIME as water, as God chooses to be in whatever form He sees as neccessary. And inside color, which means inside God, inside the wet or dry capable water are both math language and the English language, all other languages are there as well but as I am using English and as it is becoming, or if not already our universal language. I am saying the English alphabet letters only are found inside energy and alongside each alphabet letter from the beginning is a number, but not just any number, being linked by way of the B-Z-Mechanical realm of love, of God driven data, partnered up with the English alphabet letters A to Z and these first prime pairs are found in line at the very beginning of these math formulas of Phi and Pi, and God uses Phi only during His B-Z-Mechanical work, to form, the base form of everything you can touch as solid in the world. The material things of the world by God are made on top and inside God's B-Z-Mechanical work the solid things made physical are made by God's Q-C-Mechanical realm of TIME and LOVE (God) work together, as. Quantum and Classical together; Yes, God's computer-like data forming B-Z frameworks of invisible Phi formed geometric as straight lines to make everything you can use and see, and touch, everything made also of God's Q-C-Mechanical computations. Using Pi made invisible curving geometric lines and of sounds and of colors never moving as they are held in solid, as placed, by TIME (God) from amongst the straight lines created out of the prime pairs and the numbers of Pi and

Phi and the English alphabet letters found in Phi as all in straight lines grabbing hold of the prime pairs inside the B-Z-Mechanical world of positive magnetic data of God with the alphabet letters of Pi's curves of a circle and of a sphere. All a ball of ever curving rolling forth English letters, all read by you using the same manner of thinking, by way of your thinking in pure consciousness of God. As you see a red balloon, you would if you could see a spiders frame work of straight strands of invisible Phi lines and of invisible curving lines of Pi. Where B and Z means before the so-called big-bang and the tiny consciousness dots of data of water (God) were there before the big-bang substance of matter. Now I have told you a long story of how everything is made you should be able to now see a rose a bit differently. Each and everything made having a straight line geometry blueprint and know even the oxygen you are breathing and the wind blowing around The rose plant is also made of the straight lines of Phi and the curving lines of Pi, and it is in this way all of the periodic table elements are made; all by way of the tone of C and its 16 upper partial overtones in different combinations. Each a symphony, just take some time out to think about what you have just read, place the book down and go outside if you can and when you have something of nature in front of your eyes, lift your hand up in front of your eyes so you can see all beyond your eyes through your hand past your hand, see the scene beyond your hand to the hills or sea etc (its set a ra = IT is set in Ra's radio [God]). How many trillions of dots (pixels) are invisible allowing the colors way in the distance, in nature of the distant hills to show through themselves. All a massively strong force and know, as far as the magnetic winds go, magnetism being of God, being of colors and sounds proper, can have everything as if set in concrete! Simply able to be known as, the magnetic winds of TIME. Take some time out to explore what I have told you on one's life; be open of mind, be like water as Bruce Lee said!

We Begin Again!

During your time away from this book did you when thinking about distance ever think about what process of human thinking places the content inside your mind at any given moment, or of God's purple and violet magnetic colors showing the Nexus/next us as seen in the Star Trek movie Generations.

A test was done using a big machine used to look at the inside of your body it is called an MRI scanner and you lie down in it and it moves as a big ring of magnetism around your body but in this experiment.

The ring was just around the outside of a woman's head. They saw her brain fill with colors and sounds and they gave her an apple to look at. When she held the apple in her hand they saw the parts of her brain load the outer vision of the apple.

Then when they took the apple away and asked her to think she had the apple still in her hand, but wasn't there at all. To the surprise of all present, the same parts of the brain data loaded in the exact same way, by her inner vision only, as when the apple was outer vision visible in her hand.

Also further tests showed sometimes the left-brain itself under the influence of E would move a persons arm up in the air and then the person would have the thoughts to move the arm up in the air after it had already been moved.

Further to this there was a man really sick with epilepsy and doctors to try and heal him cut the joining web of the middle part of the brain. Now knowing this man's two hemisphere's were separate from one another they began two tests. When you look only with your left eye, your eye is connected to your right C sharp side of your brain, and when you are looking only with your right eye, you are connecting your vision to the left E half of your brain. So they told the patient with the two halves of his brain separate to cover his right eye, and they gave him a pencil, and asked him what he could say about the object in his hand, whilst looking at it with the E driven left hemisphere of his brain; he could only say it was a pencil.

Now they told him to move his hand over to cover his left eye, to show the same pencil to his brain's C driven right hemisphere.

When asked what was in his hand the man could not tell them what it was called but when asked if he could tell them anything at all, the man gave a long list of practical things you could do with the pencil: Such as write words, or numbers, or draw, or tap it on the side of your head as if in wonder and so on and so forth about the pencil.

Now you know how badly the E signal has you all hypnotized in your university research endeavors and your would-be C sharp subconscious brain right hemisphere locked out off innovation works.

What I am about to tell you is very important, you must say to yourself now, knowing about doing things, like the man with the pencil, drawing with it etc is far more important than knowing what to call things, even if you do not know what something is called, you are able to contemplate it and use creativeness on it to be original. Others doing like I am doing being in God's consciousness engineering are studying, the science of complexity. Isn't it really something, yes the subconscious God in touch person is the person who is in touch with what he or she can do with everything. Said again in a different way because it is important movement, using your mind by way of an inquiry opens the door to all truth doing what something does, how it interacts is more important to God, to you, than the stillness of a name of something as the subconscious part of the brain is the right hemisphere.

The God led person is someone who thinks BEYOND THE REACH OF THE INVISIBLE E ENEMY WITHIN being the word key to assisting God is motivation.

W^hich is a very big word meaning doing things because you have a very good reason and your willpower (reason) is so strong you want to keep on doing this thing you are motivated (reasoned) to do.

Because there is only one law of physics applying to all galaxies – freedom of choice.

Once again you have a very good level of reason a very good level of motivation, and it is important to note here, it is very good to want to be a God only, C thinking person. To want to be become more God like, because as you grow older the more genuis will surface.

Did you come across Albert Einstein's famous math equation $E = MC^2$? This equation revealed the massive power of energy inside everything and from there to the making of the nuclear bomb, however my replacement equation, which is on my artwork titled Quantums of Time which show my Logarithm for Everything which shows how we can build things from energy.

A^s water is the one thing known to be made of a third ingredient, unknown to you but it is simply God's consciousness changing two gases into what you understand to be a fluid . . . flux plasma of magnetism.

Now for the real thinking!

Know every element on the table of the elements is each a different combination of these 16 overtones of God with a sound. Yes everything is a product made of sound and color (light) by God himself as pure light, as bright, as right, as flight as sight but not as night, or as fright, or blight.

However one day, I came to the thought, everything is made of data information in formation communicating with us by way of a presence inside within you, within me. When this universe was born it was more likened unto, a great, and tremendous, going forth of a large quantity of fresh pure water called The Surge, as if out of a large concrete dam's spill way. In the beginning the sound water made when moving was the correct for us BE inside us, from a God as light point of view.

Pure God consciousness may be wet or dry this change is a change of hue, of color, from one shade of tone to another deeper, darker more vividly defined color of the same similar to before of the first color. Nothing more difficult than this except I am of course here talking about water.

Water here on Earth is making the wrong sound when it is in movement, it tells me and everybody else it has been changed by enemy intervention.

The two letters together in formation of waters sound when moving have been changed to the word IS, the meaning of IS is 3rd person singular indicative (E enemy voice of mental illness and self-consciousness), thus creating a hesitation around the state of BE as the sound of water when in motion should be the sound of the word BE, meaning existence, reality, whatever is real to a single person this means none of us are ever in the mode, in the way of being our true self's. Water as IS basically mirror reflecting away from you your true to you alone unique self, meaning rather it is meaning the giving away of your thinking to another person's (E's) approval (thou shalt not judge).

The E signal prevents the passage of the contents into you of a personal wish list you created for this lifetime before coming into it. After the E aerials were placed and young King Tutankhamen was murdered, God went into FAILSAFE mode simply due to the presence in your midst of the F flat (E) signal the positive magnetic tonality of God's C sharp language began providing a second language placed through you inside the English language in this simplistic story of our impending glory by return to a reality with water as BE.

Detail God's Secret Art!

God's hint to me, it (healing) is understood in wood (new born lung tissue [antibiotic]).

The C33 being Earth harmonic with its musical octave ratio by 2 being the C66 and the corresponding harmonic upper partial overtones are all heard, whenever there is a C tone in the air, near and dear, it is shown on the upper harmonic partial scale as C" as termed the double prime with apostrophes ("), also being used as laid into our language by God for His secret art as applied to the Earth as geographical positions, as latitudes, as longitude's in primes as these apostrophe symbols may be found being used standing for degrees arc-minutes, and arc-seconds. These prime symbols also being used to denote lengths as in 3' 3" for 3 foot 3 inches. However, the most important form of the term primes attached to the musical notes of C', C'', C''' and so-forth are the first prime numbers from 2 to 97 attached to the letters of the English alphabet, giving us, the prime of 97 for Z. Another symbol arriving into use by way of it working its magic through us is the small circle with a straight line through it vertically, used to denote the strength of the magnetic degree of C along with the polar angle as a coordinate plotted as the angle along with distance as plotted on a polar coordinate system.

Also as defined by the polar inch equation which helps define a golden spiral as found through the Fibonacci numbers including 3 and the golden ration as Phi, which is also denoted by the small circle with the vertical line through it, also the musical symbol for C is a small circle with a straight line through it horizontally and God reads His own form and place within His universal functions as a whole by reading Himself as He forms Himself into the English language in your mind as He finds you in Himself as the E weakened light inside the human brain's left and right hemispheres also in the form of the letters A to Z coupled each to each respective prime pair as they are found placed inside the mathematical constants Phi and Pi, with Pi being the fabled philosophers stone, all of the proceeding is a run-down on the naturally occurring state of TIME as light. These are all the conditions you need to be of sane mind and of healthy body, with the make-up of the internal symbols and numbers and letters in the light inside God's being the same for your needs as it is for light. For it itself being simply mentioned at times proceeding forth as information in communication as it; as we, began, as the subject of your thoughts and now as I have enlightened as the means by how you are built, composed, in both a mental and a physical way, however long ago, in your not too distant past, we knew all of this and much more.

The E (F FLAT) SOUND SYSTEM OF MICROWAVE STATIC NOISE IS ENGINEERED into the Earth's primary one polarity positive source of magnetism (light), and in the space-time around you as the presence of this magnified tone of E is dangerous to your mental and physical well-being if it was not accompanied, as in neutralized to a degree whereby the E tone in the mix of the light traveling into your eyes and your ears was offset by the presence of a third ring to lord over the ring of E (F flat) to maintain an equilibrium of wellness for ourselves in their made bad for you light.

Here and now as I write the one and only cause of all our chaos such as disease and violence, as inside the visual rainbow of light, as the tone of E as 659.26 and company, and the primary Earth tone of C as 523.25 and company in the rainbow in all forms God (light, consciousness) is fluid. The musical scale of C in its many forms corresponds to the colors of the entire so-called (electro) magnetic spectrum of light.

God as light, as gravity, as sound, as color must have a particular form, the C and its 16 harmonic partials are His chosen form of Himself to enable Him to be Himself in a form in this case in this form as C and sixteen overtones computer-like math/English language form for His computational activity work.

However although His presence in this form is within all things of different forms all are wholenesses or multiplications. As octave changes in music, all having C as the resonant sympathetic quantum entanglement creating scale of C harmonic upper partials included TIME as light as God's information in communication with you as His rainbow is magnetic, in fact, TIME/LIGHT/SPACE is magnetic as C is a dual of positive's, always out an flowing of magnetic energy as space-time does not distort or bend under the mass or weight of the planets within it, it is an amalgamation of gamma guided data in formation and in communication with us.

What God has done with His secret art work is sneak in a very special set of words amongst the two-hundred-ninety-five-thousand entries inside the English Dictionary. These words God has placed all either rhyme with a partner word and therefore God has combined two meanings and more in flight plus the added presence of certain words which are direct science guided clues to anti-gravity flight and also another set of words for teleportation to get our creative teeth into as well as the use by all of the Holy Grail Method as described at the end of this book. All God's information in communication with us in the form of magnetic words, and their sounds together by different letters, by different numbers in and of Phi, Pi, primes and Fibonacci; it is set in RajDjIjO.

Maze. Craze. Day's. Ways. Phase. E daze. God say's. C Octave stays.

In late 1989 my contact with my subconscious was no different to you but able to have for hours a philosophical thought conversation, I had become a solo dad.

And I thought to myself, I have plenty of time up my sleeve, what shall I throw myself into? The instructions I gave to begin the creative process I was unleashing were, it must be something to be of benefit to all humanity. It was two weeks before I received the idea and a year and beyond until now worth of inspiration to go a long with it from God, from the human brain, it was a board game of all things but it is brilliant, it is simply a way of generating fantastic conversations amongst its players and beyond into your day – called Sangreal.

The purpose of the board game Sangreal is to overflow the left hemisphere into the Nirvana of the right hemisphere mind, in such a way as to allow Nirvana (Sangreal), the right creative hemisphere to take over.

And although it may seem very hard to believe you are all naturally right hemisphere (artistic), active personalities to the core each and every one of you ergo the purpose of the game's special way of play.

Playing Sangreal with a few friends, God reminding you about the important something you'd forgotten, being extremely important to you to remember but even so it had slipped your mere left hemisphere mind. In all the physical and mental actions and reactions of life as it will only continue to do so until your playing of Sangreal, to enable play, to place your subconscious goals, into your conscious mind, by way of your right hemisphere's thought activity in God, but most of all in every moment through you all, when you are gathered in conversation, beyond the mundane of oh the weather's fine today isn't it? Or idle woman's magazine celebrity gossiping or newspaper sensationalism, or these reruns of shows on T.V over and over or these infinite seeming so-called reality shows having the family dog running for his or her kennel for a little relief.

Sangreal – are you ready to play?

Have your say on matters pertaining to what we want to be doing (C thinking) each day, not how do you feel? You want what you want to be doing to be real.

Do you want to buy one? I hope so because all the proceeds are to be used to give homes with modern plumbing, of trees, with a dairy cow for milk and micro business loans to those who need that first great helping hand out of the poverty spiral, who are quite capable of making great crafty product for the worldwide open trade market niche.

Now let me show you why and how and as for the purpose of my many large log book, scrap book like pages, they are given to show the untold number of times God (EXTRASENSORY PERCEPTION) has brought me, by utilizing my thoughts to take me to the library or rather the massive amount of times God's guidance of each and every one of you visually as he does by picking you up off the couch and taking you into the kitchen to get a drink just as a song comes on the kitchen radio, or an advert, back in the living room on the T.V exactly something to do with just what you were thinking or rather mostly, God desiring you to think about, as the game Sangreal is designed to do so well for you.

Bear in mind the change in the Earth's oscillation and change in magnetic structure composition during a total eclipse by the moon.

The now most important, of all readings to you are known as your KP index readings of the strengths of the Earth's magnetic field, these KP readings are taken by you at various stations across the globe each day. These readings need to be taken prior to and at the moment of the total eclipse of the sun by the moon, especially a reading taken directly below the North Pole (Santa Claus) star called Eltanin before this war began.

Sound is color and color is sound, products of God, also color as all is color, everything is made of color, color is in many forms, but all color is a TONE and the God's secret art tells all TONE is a sound (particle) and a color (wave) two positive polarity components together, a particle and a wave simultaneously using the famous dual slit experiment as a proof here, the photon Mobiuss's (waves) and spheres (particles) thinking entities capable of discretion influenced by the consciousness of each experimenter.

To any doctor who knows a bit about these things to do with an MRI scanner, which although a machine to capture magnetic images of the body, it does not collect, it does not show the so-called even-spin particles on its display screen, therefore, it does not show a very good or at least, not a suitable picture of the E caused disease as would be liked. Try replacing the usual barium coined rubber milkshake, taken in, prior to the use of the MRI scanner with a tiny – .005 grams of titanium dioxide mixed with a teaspoon of full cream milk and add a zero for children.

Even with the E enemy signal around, with God; subconsciously you initiate and carry out physical actions, serving to instruct, to guide, to form, to communicate, to relate to your reasoning conscious waking calculating mind, complete mindful observations of these Subconscious actions ever unfolding without you realizing they were unfolding through you, by you, to the point whereby. These Subsequent actions in motion were effecting a great truth towards providing you complete psychological and physical well-being also gaining in this subconsciously driven way an understanding of an all-embracing acknowledgment and profound awareness of the true nature of God's power available to you always by way of your so termed subconscious mind. This knowledge such, you become completely as one of two; your conscious and your subconscious in total balance, in total and complete synchronized harmonic equilibrium. All termed an existential quintessence experience applied to all areas of your life. Let us C (see) God and thereby see God within each other and discuss. We are thinking beings who have had our thinking waylaid by an incorrect take by this E reality propaganda machine.

The statistics add up to prove this fact of the now seven billion of us, one billion of us, are medically injured, two-thirds of us are living on less than two dollars a day, starving, homeless, unschooled. The Western world countries are in the middle of another economic depression, millions are under dictatorships without a hope of living with dignity, young people born into this global crisis are now of the belief by adulthood, whatever this world they have been born into is; IT IS NOT RIGHT! Therefore our best minds are now filled with F flat driven despair, loneliness, apathy, all a depression, filled with no hope of a way forward without some kind of becoming famous way of fifteen minutes on Twitter or Facebook, whilst a single E aerial at a depth yes but with an outcry of knowledge of a lot not a little being too dangerous is producing earthquakes, war, famine and disease.

Now for fun!

God knows where everything in the whole universe is, everything ever written down and where any book is located now and as it is God's ideas building on your ideas, forming the basis of your subconscious. Within the subconscious there are two ways you can go, you may spend a lot of time thinking about your future or thinking about anything at all capturing your focus but what is important, is purely to know contemplation of one subject, over a long time, is an act of subconscious God input thinking. But do not lose sight of the fact, God thought, subconsciously links things, other lesser ways of E thinking cannot reach, to be able to be doing this, and this is the pure essence of the God subconscious, your thoughts simply leap frog over off one thought onto another, a flow like stepping stones across a creek.

As an example, you might see a bird house in someone's garden and you begin to be empowered by the superconsciousness mind (God) which takes your mind on a journey back in wonder to the tree providing the wood for this bird house to thinking about being someone who plants little seedlings for a living to thinking about doing this job out in bad weather and you recall seeing a nice coat or jacket in a store on your travels and you realize you are now thinking of how do the birds get shelter whenever it snows or rains or the wind blows really hard, and you continue on thinking about the birds and what they eat and this is only the beginning of God inspired contemplative thought.

Now I can tell you, the most fun you can have is in placing your thoughts about things you come across down in some written form such as a small pocket notebook and pen for when on the move. And a bigger scrap book for all the clues you will come across to help bring about your chosen God allied with goals, the clue to wholeness for the best well-being for a person who gets ill seems to be, along the lines, of a small electronic diode device, giving the nervous system C sharp light only; the diode or gyrorator component not allowing the E signal to flow through the human nerve bundle, leaving the primary C sharp signal in tact and alone to communicate with every portion of our being as was intended, as blueprinted by way of God's Perfect Medical Matrix for the human being.

This same idea of the cancelling out of the bad electricity signal E, leaving pure positive C sharp (gamma) as the massive true power of the Earth magnetic available in the air to wirelessly feed your present electric appliances and run cars, trucks, planes, ships and trains on positive magnetism, merely tuned In by radio receiver tuner to on, or tuned out for off. All achieved by the same principle of using a 180 phase shift of the F flat waveform to neutralize E, only you might have to use a sound proof box, or The Paul Trap OR SIMPLY A C SHARP AERIAL TO BEGIN.

Once again to push this deletion of mammoth yet simplistic proportions home, in August 1964, long before photographs could be changed, a photograph was taken of one of the tops of one E aerial showing its large steel balls on crossbars some 13,500 feet below the surface of the ocean off the coast of South America, sticking out of the sea floor, by the crew of a ship called Eltanin whilst surveying a telecommunication cable. Eltanin by the way, is the name, God as radio (Ra) waves gave, for the Egyptians to name the North pole star above the Earth also in the Great Pyramid under the huge granite blocks above the so-called King's chamber there is the remainder of the aftermath of huge Internal hydrogen explosions, there was a detailed report available on the internet of just such a use of the Great Pyramid. The article I came across some years ago may still be located by way of your placement of the words “Great Pyramid hydrogen engine” into Google’s search slot, telling of how The Great Pyramid was used to create a huge EMP thump onto the surface of the planet Earth at this very spot geographically, which is said to be the exact dividing point of land and water and the point where North and South meet at the Equator amongst other exactitudes of details the Great Pyramid provides, for you today, for your Utopian tomorrow of the math involved in the building of this structure for this purpose to serve to also produce, a C sharp brain, God inspired 180 degree phase shift E sound neutralizing waveform sound tone.

I had arrived one afternoon onto the steps leading uphill to an old Masonic Lodge, now an art gallery where I held a Magnolia tree flower bud in my hand and realized without a shadow of a doubt all reality was in fact simply information in communication with us in the form of data. A massive flow, a stream, of God’s tiny Mobius rings with soccer ball like spheres in their center covered in darker wet and lighter dry colors being God as His solid rocks and metals as sounds as if painted on by tiny hexagonal honey bumble bee created pixel dots of God’s Phi and Pi language data (color [light]) as information in communication with us all the time visually and audibly. In the form of the hieroglyphic language, the birds pictured by way of God’s secret art decoded are the Earth’s KP index magnetic strengths, being the strengths magnetic of C and the F flat in our midst. The F flat causing weather-driven disasters, and earthquakes, wars and disease and physical violence.

I was traveling at night through the small town of Beaumont NZ where my grandparents used to have an apple orchard, I stopped and took a photograph of the full moon above the mountains and above the bridge there. This photograph is very special as it shows the color purple of the gamma rays (the 70% missing dark energy) behind the F flat made black sound mask of night, of space-time. Also there is a ring of the color pink neatly formed also around the moon in this shot. Seen at marcsfineart.com.

To radio tune in space-time's C sharp purple gamma dark energy. Could it be as simple as this for a trained physicist? But for those who can do it, take an oscilloscope and feed Earth's song, with the embedded white noise static (E) and C Alven, space-time gamma radio waves Earth song through it.

Failing this tap into a source of white E (F flat) noise static off a radio, now with another oscilloscope with the same done to it sit them side by side and locate the F flat (E) signal in the mix of the one on your left, once you have located the F flat signal. You are interested in the timing of its arrival, as you need to introduce your secondary grace-note; new neutralizing 180 degree phase shift F flat signal at the exact same timing as the real F flat is in this mix of pure Earth's magnetism.

This is what I came up with after a question and answer session with God using His Holy Grail Method!

Stage One: The oscilloscope (the great white hope).

Stage Two: The Paul Trap. Stage Three: The Gryrator device to neutralize the E signal. Stage Four:

An electronic crystal oscillator set to work by quartz crystal set to C sharp frequency. This ends the work I have completed on my own not knowing anything about physics. The Gryrator is a device which will transmit the C sharp signal unchanged in the forward direction through the circuit but reverses the polarity of the signal traveling in the backward direction (or equivalently 180 phase-shifts the backward traveling E (F flat) signal). If and when these tests prove the popping into this immediate E signal cancelled out environment of a wireless source of C led positive magnetism, then you shall have a source of positive magnetism energy able to be tapped into anywhere, just as Tesla did. Leaving behind artificial generation methods such as water held back dams, nuclear power stations, coal, natural gas, wind turbines, solar collectors, hot steam, oceans waves, cold or hot fusion, hydrogen and oil products.

The first meaning of the word ORDINARY in the Oxford English Dictionary is: Rule and control.

Now how did rule and control get in there? I thought the meaning of ordinary was normal and natural, average at best, well known, accepted, also under the definition given for the word will there is a huge lot of E spam and when the only correct meaning word is mentioned it is skirted around to negate its worth; WILL in YOU is CHOICE.

Rule and control by whom, by who's say, by who, is the perfect of thought, by who's choice, and why?

Being!

In cases of being hypnotized by a stage hypnotist, the volunteer is asked after being told to bark like a dog and doing so! Could you stop yourself? And his or her reply well no! Where you readily act out and believe you are the person you are commanded to be, so it is in life, with your dominant thoughts hypnotizing you, molding your perceptions and reinforcing your thoughts, beliefs and actions. God's purpose is to provide a way to truth, wisdom, power, and love, to God enlighten you, to bring you out of the F flat induced deep sleep preventing the evolutionary gene of human consciousness called Darpp 32 the E brain virus software is trying to shut down from fulfilling God's ongoing mandate to guide you all into your Nexus (next us) nirvana, affording you the opportunity to act upon the contents of the blueprint you crafted for yourself for this sojourn, through your interactions, with God's immense, guiding human ready for you as the ME (magnetic energy) you.

How God Manipulates Me Happily!

This afternoon I was asked by my daughter Bonny. If I wanted to help her look for a computer chair. When we met I suggested we go along to the local recycling store, while we were there she found everything she needed for her home, she found a small wooden table with metal legs which she said would be great to sit her lap top on when placing her desktop display on the T.V screen it was too high, but I said I could easily cut down the legs with a hacksaw. On the way home to her house she stopped and brought some pink spray paint and some light sanding paper to rub down and repaint this small table. After we had sanded it down together we decided to use the spray can out of the wind in the closed shed. She wanted to put down some old newspapers on the floor first, so we began to do this. Just as we were finishing this task I found a newspaper page with a picture of a glass prism and a rainbow of light traveling from it. The paper was dated Friday the 22nd of July 2005 and all the same old T.V shows were noted in a guide on the same page under the photo of the glass prism (magnetic prison), with the light forming a rainbow.

These seemingly chance findings by myself began after I had decided to give my life up in exchange for a life looking after my daughters who were still in nappies by myself. What I did not fully realize or learn properly until they left home in their early twenties is all women carry a special kind of magic, a magic the world must have now, always in abundance but fails to have, due to the presence of the E aerial driven abuses of women.

I really got a confidence boost when I needed it by finding the article through my daughter Bonny, the God led subconscious driven serendipity was cool as I would never have found it if not for the natural C sharp greater water filled mind of a woman. Bonny chose this flat not me, we did not place those newspapers there, we did not make the wind blow out of nowhere for the first time today in her backyard.

A Perfect Moment in Time

‘Anna, what is the date today?’ asks Matt. ‘It’s Monday the seventh. Of August in the year 2019,’ replies Anna. ‘Great!’ Matt says, ‘We’ll make it to Los Angeles to meet your new buyer.’ Anna comments, ‘Yes, I’ve completed the last embroidered quilt.’ Matt answers the door and says, ‘Hi Serena!’ ‘Hi Matt,’ said Serena. Anna shouts, ‘God loves beautiful Sangreal thinking.’ Serena says, ‘just love this right-hemisphere expression?’ ‘We do,’ says Matt and Anna in unison. ‘Reminding you. Of our gathering. On Sunday to play SANGREAL,’ said Serena. ‘We’ll be there—thanks,’ said Anna. Later Matt and Anna load the quilts into the car. Hovering gently. Above the ground—without wheels. Thanks to control. Of magnetism by S.A.M. (or Salma) ‘By the way,’ asks Anna, ‘How does it work?’ ‘It’s the sound number crunching tones given by Marc Stewart’s Algorithm for Everything equation. By way. Of his S.A.M. syntax analyzing magnetic computer.’ replies Matt. ‘Oh Matt,’ says Anna, ‘The freeway into Los Angeles is so beautiful grassed over with shrubs on the verges.’ Matt and Anna glide beneath a private New York gallery. The receptionist said, ‘Through. To your right.’ Anna and Matt unfold a quilt for him. ‘This is extraordinary craftsmanship,’ say’s Mike. ‘They’re wonderful I’ll purchase all you can supply me.’ Suddenly the voice of Anna’s S.A.M (Salma) credit card sized super computer mainframe asks for permission to 3-D Anna’s mother Jean. Yes please Salma,’ requests Anna. Jean appears in 3-D holographic projection. Jean said, ‘Anna come quickly your father has suffered a heart attack.’ Anna asks Mike, ‘What’s the quickest way to get to Florida?’ ‘Teleport from the new stargate round the corner,’ say’s Mike; ‘you’ll arrive through the Florida stargate in a couple of seconds.' 'I was reading about this science,' say's Matt, 'It's all been made possible since Marc Stewart worked out. The DATA we use is a product of our brain and the magnetism everything is made of, Matt and Anna walk to the Los Angele's stargate pavilion. 'Welcome,' say's Baxter, 'what is your destination?' 'Florida, it's an emergency,' said Anna. 'Well then let's get you there right away,' say's Baxter. Anna and Matt walk in through the stargate's God-light filled water to see Wendy the Florida stargate attendant smiling at them, they step out in utter amazement. 'First timer's are we?' asks Wendy.' They arrive at the hospital by hover taxi to find Anna's father Robert asleep, Anna's mother Jean is sitting with him. 'Wow! So quickly.' Says, Jean. 'Marc Stewart magic.' say's Anna. Jean said, 'Your father's heart is in critical condition, things are desperate so they're going to perform the very first trial of Marc Stewart's C assisted Titanium Milk, they're hoping it might give a better MRI picture of your father's heart,' say's Jean. The hospital orderly enters the room. Tim the orderly said, 'Let's get this new show on the road. A little bird who heard one of Marc Stewart's lectures said his secret to the Titanium Milk was THE KNOWING God gave him when he held a green fuzzy Magnoila bud pre-flower in his hand, in this moment he said he knew everything around us was INFORMATION IN COMMUNICATION and our mind's... hey but you just gotta see Marc himself live or hear him recorded.' Robert swallows the very first single half teaspoon of the shaken but not stirred Titanium Milk and lies down in the MRI scanner, whilst Anna, Matt and Jean look on. Suddenly Ray Concella the MRI technician blurts out, 'My goodness forget the old grey flannel suit of the old barium meal before, the Titanium Milk has given us a color photograph but it just can't be, it looks like a young person's heart. ‘What’s going on here?’ asks Dr Phelp’s. He checks Robert’s heart. ‘My god or should I say who is Marc Stewart’s God, his Titanium Milk has just completely removed all disease from this man’s heart it must be more Mobius rings and spheres God magnetic magic,’ says Dr Phelp’s. Tim the orderly said, Dr Phelp’s was named after Mr Phelp’s the Mission Impossible character who set the seemingly impossible missions into action on tiny loops of magnetic sound tape, the recorders would always go up in a puff of SMOKE KILLS fame in one of those old winged airplanes now found all over the third world, as temporary accommodation and tool sheds by Marc’s construction crew, building houses in far away places kept busy by the looks of astonished amazement on the faces of the locals when they see the new farm tractors rolling out of Marc Stewart’s Millennium Falcon... a real one. After being produced in one piece by a really big God controlled S.A.M computer containment arena of manufacture, all out of magnetism from the immediate environment. Robert swings his feet down onto the floor and says, ‘What a rush, I feel twenty all over again,’ ‘It is some wicked thinking person’s awesome science magnetic magic again,’ say’s Matt. ‘You’ll need a change of scenery,’ said Anna. Robert said, ‘I seem to be full of ideas, perhaps I might just come out of retirement and go build up a new business or design a new home or perhaps I’ll take a ride on one of these real Star Wars flying machines being made these day’s.’ ‘Sounds like you’ll become another Leonardo Da Vinci like Marc Stewart with this God given light it up heart of yours now dad,’ says Anna. A few days later Matt answers a knock at the door of their home. ‘Hi Serena,’ say’s Matt. ‘Anna’s parents are visiting with us,’ ‘Everyone’s welcome,’ said Serena happily. Soon everyone is around long wooden tables covered in food and drink for all the men, women and children of the village. Serena says, 'we've gathered here today to further explore and share our experiences of the board game SANGREAL.' 'Robert would you like to start us off?' asks Serena. Robert said, 'the SANGREAL board game eliminated the problem of boring dinner parties and corporate affairs, ending our mundane monkey-like chatter of everyday speech we all endured. SANGREAL gave us collaboration, openness, happiness and a chance to empower our personalities, even beyond the realm of play venturing forth into the wide-open expanses of life continuing to express ourselves on topics of interest and importance to us all, by the ability of the games quotes to stimulate and hold our interest captive. Wendy said, 'Yes the game removed our frustrations of having topics of conversation of too little concern and curiosity. The game removed the anger at regularly being unable to take up the care necessary to lead, to enter into it, which upon which everything turns and relies on freedom of speech for all, such as the freedom of speech we hear expressed by the games creator Marc Stewart. On one of his live or recorded teleseminar's or open-discussion speech TICK-IT event.' Bill said, 'Yes it was these being the dawning of the spirit of right-brain God driven empowerment of personality and enduring friendship, overtaking everyone who has heard Marc Stewart talk on the glory of the story the Egyptians told in stone, the God Code, and of God.' Serena said, 'Would anyone else like To share his or her experiences?' Cavell said, 'Yes when marcsfineart.com launched we knew Marc Stewart was an artist of true ilk as in cast in the mould as if he is a new Picasso, Hemingway, Van Gogh, Einstein, or Leonardo Da Vinci. As artist, inventor and writer, simply an observer of life of both its inner and outer facets of shining glory.'

James said, 'Yes we have all been influenced greatly and magnificently by his humble, open, empowering, KNOWING style driving you a mile.'

Serena said, 'Russell you're a CEO of a large private investment corporation how say you?'

'Russell said, 'If you are searching for a well-balanced state of mind and feelings, promoting a tranquil demeanor and self-possession, favoring not one opinion or belief more than another – play Sangreal – All our employees who learned too, by learning how to interact with their God powered right-hemisphere driven subconscious thoughts as written by Marc Stewart or by the Way of Play of Sangreal. Where now each is worth more to the company than we were paying them, whereby they all worked together on the same task all towards the same purpose, working tasks out in detail, influencing, persuading, advocating solutions to difficulties in front of us all. Tom speaks, 'SANGREAL gives the real dope, the real KNOWING, the real God, quotes galore not fit to ignore.' Russell speaks, 'This new game's a score for more, all cards are designed to stimulate the processes of thought.' Mary speaks, 'Forging new synaptic pathways in your brain.' Hanna speaks, 'Each player's generation of their original thought paving the way for jubilant outpourings of discussion.' Henry speaks, 'All serving to produce a general feeling of wellbeing.' Emma speaks, 'Coupled with an expansion of each players personality as knowledge presented during play is assimilated and reacted to.' Arista speaks, 'The first time I got to play I thought I cannot be awake for nothing looks to me as it did before, or else I am awake but for the first time! And all before has been a sleep.'

Anna said, 'Like Beethoven said of his ninth symphony when asked by stunned listener's to his latest offering the same can be said for any Marc

Stewart event either live or as recorded, it is for generations yet to be born.' Serena said, 'Matt has a poem for us, go ahead Matt.' Matt speaks, 'It's by Robert Frost titled Stopping by woods on a snowy evening.'

Whose woods are these I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are Lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep.
And miles to go before I sleep.
And miles to go before I sleep.
And miles to go before I sleep (C translation = see the end of this F flat creep).

Anna said, 'I'd like to make a toast to Marc Stewart, although we all know he'd just say oh the brain did it and mention in passing; the data of God.'
'Bravo... here, here,' shouted all who had gathered together to celebrate life.

A SANGREAL Great Thought by John Hus, [c. 1373

Sangreal Way Of Play Rules

Players choose a small cup each and the 7 same color pawn playing pieces and select a starting position on one of the seven points of the playing board. Then a pile of Great Thoughts, The Rest, Kids Corner, Science Notes and The Quest cards are placed face down on the table leaving the others in the game box.

The player who throws the highest score with the two dice begins the game. Players remain on the outer pathway until they collect the full set of "Hallows" cards. Players may move in any direction on the outer pathway. When a player lands on a Hallows (H) square all players focus their attention on the moment for A Gathering has been called. The player who is on the Hallows square picks out a single card from off the top of either THE GREAT THOUGHTS, THE REST, KIDS CORNER or SCIENCE NOTES cards. The player on the Hallows (H) space reads this card out loudly to all the players present.

The purpose of the game is to allow opportunities for all players to express themselves. Speaking in any way they would like to express themselves. Regardless of age (Kids Corner and Science Notes cards), life experience, or standing in eyes of anyone other than their own eyes the player on the Hallows (H) square must speak out aloud their comment first before the other players get their chance to make a comment of their own. As simple as A.B.C. And this is all there is to this game and more-so what follows is the magic the game creates.

During play any player who laughs in an obvious mocking or who gets angry at another player's comments for any reason during the entire game play. Must leave the table completely and try to remain as silent as possible. For any length of time as decided prior to play commencing. Or an ordinary 3-minute kitchen egg timer. Of course once the time out is over. The player concerned takes up a turn when the die comes around to them again. Of course this rule can be ignored if you as players decide you want more of a university debate where the conversations can be more of a free for all more promoting freedom of speech.

It makes conversations happen in a very good way on a wide variety of subjects. Instantly it gets people talking. It is a truth serum. Being really cupids arrows and bow to play romance or friendship between older players and the young for fun as the case may be. Either a discussion of note ensues or the voting commences as follows.

Time for the "Reckoning" to begin players! If you decide on as little as a whim our player on the (H) Hallowed Ground is far from Dim then drop a sphere into the Sangreal Cup. However if you decide our player's notion is shallow Small-Talk or back-pedalling Tall-talk. There's no need to pout or shout. Simply, do not place your sphere in the cup!

Sangreal does not need any rhetoric to hurt its players. Forcing turtles back into shells. So relax
Jack and Jill and allow King Arthur, Queen Guinevere and Company an opportunity to show their way, their Round Table Way. And those who sit around it honor the art of Chivalry, courage and courtesy. If you are standing on "Hallowed Ground" and the Sangreal (Holy Grail) Cup sounds out its Reckoning Tone alone or by the many you may select a Hallows card.

If on the H and you do not hear Merlin's tone drop in like a cherry pip stone on its own. Be still with your throat. You can only collect a "Hallows" card when at least one sphere enters the cup or when the cup runneth over through jubilation or discussion. Being simply the Hallows card given as this player's comment has set the game, every brain alight . . . on fire. Being the hearts desire.

Once a player has collected the four Hallows cards he or she throws the die on their next turn. Beginning their journey to claim the seven Virtues. It's the timeless fascination of the Virtues you must now unravel as you travel the inner pathways.

The seven Pillar of Virtue (V) spaces are joined by a maze of pathways. Each player seeking to express their true self's ability as best they can. Proceeds to the Pillar of Virtue of their choosing and so on to each in the order they deem best. Exact number does not need to be thrown to achieve position on a Pillar of Virtue. These positions are marked with a V.

Once a player arrives on a pillar of Virtue (V) space they may choose to pick a Quest card off the top of the pile and answer its question with a yes or a no. A player other than the player attempting to answer the Quest card question reads the card out aloud and gives the answer on the card's back. When the card is no longer required it is returned to the bottom of the cards for selection.

When a player successfully answers a Quest card question. They collect the Virtue card of their choosing and leave their color pawn like marker playing piece on this Pillar of Virtue (V) before you go, to let you know you have been to this destination on your travels. As the playing boards magic ride drives you deeper into its magic inner spaces. Later letting you know you have been to this V space and are on Track to empower yourself with the entire seven Virtue cards.

If unsuccessful at answering a Quest question.

Try again to get your Virtue card on your next turn of the die. These Quest cards are simply small stories of things; of adventures in Mallory's book titled King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. And each answer is either a yes or a no. No harder then this. However player's at the start of the game can choose to be allowed to use the Great Thoughts, Science Notes, The Rest or Kids Corner cards instead in the same way reading aloud and making a comment and opening comments up to all players and either voting or agreement to give the Virtue card.

More than one player may be positioned on a Pillar of Virtue at any one time. A player who has collected all seven Virtue cards immediately heads for Camelot and the Round Table. Being your original starting outer playing board corner position. Players must on their turn of arriving back home tell a story based on one of the virtues displayed on the Virtue Cards or on one of the dictionary definitions of the word Virtue. Examples given: Excellence, worth, the practice of duty, a good quality and an accomplishment.

The characters you use may be real or imaginary. An Animal, mammal, insect or cartoon. The player may mime, dance, act out a part, impersonate a hero, and draw from legend, fable, or poem. The sky is the limit. Be creative, explore! And you can use your time outside the game to think up your Virtue story ending. You do not have to tell your story right away; you may wait until the turn of your own making best suiting you being ready.

Improvisation can be the key. Just pick a word, another player commenting on a quotation or something perhaps of the adventures of Sir Lancelot or of the Lady Dindrane, as your friend. Or as Morpheus put it to Neo, "you think it's air you are breathing". Say anything even absolutely outrageous and stop them in their tracks.

At the end of some absolutely outrageous story of complete and utter unbelievableness. Add at the finish . . . oh and one last thing. You can't believe a thing I say. How cool is Sangreal?

Your five to fifteen minutes of fame awaits. Audience! One sphere in the cup will show our storyteller or actor your appreciation.

You win the Sangreal prize by majority rule, example given, if there are five players then at least three spheres must enter the Sangreal Cup.

Also players prior to starting the game. May designate the winner to be the first player to collect seven "Virtue" cards, reach Camelot their home starting corner and dramatize a Virtue with at least some degree of earnestness.

Player's can discuss the way the game shall end and the winner found before play begins and vote on the decision with the voting spheres until a majority is reached. Or you may decide one vote will win the game!

Finally. Another twist is to use the board for a first player round the seven Pillars and home again wins the game. Leaving your pawn play pieces as you go, plotting the course you reason to be the shortest route home. (This version does not use the games cards. Sangreal Cup or voting spheres).

When a player completes their story without victory there's no time to bleat; to get back on your feet its focus you need to bring together a new act, line, mime, rhyme, story, or chorus line. So change tack and select another virtue and before you know it you'll be back on stage, the set lit up and this time its Ground Hog Day. By now you will have worked it out. It's communication, open minded, trusting, honest, to goodness, communication being the key to the Sangreal Round Table Harmony.

And to the winner take a bow it's customary somehow!

Introducing The Board Game Sangreal

In which the GREAT THOUGHTS cards together bring into one place, one space, one time, the ideas WHICH have determined the intellectual history of the world – short passages in the original words of the men and women who conceived them. The great thoughts includes:
Noble prizes winners, scientists, poets, physicians, writers, dramatists, editors, painters, inventors, mystics, presidents, statesman, founders, innovators, judges, composers, world leaders, romans, greeks, nuns, monks, bishops, teachers, global issues, great thinkers, historians, generals, publishers, reformers, journalists, sculptors, quantum theorists, kings, psychologists, freethinkers, biologists, theologians, champions, radicals, emperors,

THE REST cards include: Shaman, crystals, ghosts, E.S.P, dreams, fables, classical mythology, knowledge, truths, healing without medicine, N.D.E (near death experiences), wisdom, re-discoveries, Egypt, symbology. meditation, imagination, validation, runes, tarot, superstition, Nostradamus, mysteries, proverbs, occultism, parapsychology, astrology, hypnotism, brain-waves, beyond death, creativity, visualization, psychic voyages and powers, re-incarnation, phantom encounters, mind over matter, spiritual science, oracular traditions, visions and prophecies, numerology, legends (Atlantis), 'take care creation in progress', ancient wisdom and secret sects, the minds eye, I Ching, tao, prophets, human aura, mind dynamics, cosmic power, last two million years, The Bhagavad-Gita, religions.

LANCELOT, GUINEVERE AND KING A R T H U R

How Lancelot fell to his old love again but withdrew from Guinevere to eschew slander. And how the queen commanded him to respect the way of play! So after the quest of Sangreal was fulfilled and all knights left alive were come again unto the Table Round as the rule book of the Way of Play of Sangreal maketh mention. Then was there great joy in the court and in especial King Arthur and Queen Guinevere made great joy of the remnant home and passing glad was the king and the queen of Sir Lancelot and of Sir Bors for they had been passing long in the quest of winning the Sangreal. Then as the Great Thoughts card saith Sir Lancelot began to lament and pine for his true love but Queen Guinevere open-mouthed put her foot down and suggested it was time to allow others the opportunity to play Sangreal. How Sir Galahad, Sir Bors, Merlin, Morgan le Fay, and Sir Percival entered into the game and of The Rest card and of how king Pelles had been maimed for drawing it.

In the meanwhile Galahad blessed him by placing a sphere in the Sangreal cup. Then next the gentlewoman Morgan Le Fay and then Sir Bors and Sir Percival threw the two dice and when they were playing it was so marvelous fair and rich they marveled at the midst of the game was fairness and Galahad went thereto and found there a crown of virtue. At the feet was a sword rich and fair and it was drawn out of the sheath half a foot and more and the sword was of divers fashions and the pommel was of stone and there was in him all manner of colors being any man might find and every charge of the color had divers virtues. How Sir Lancelot half sleeping and half walking saw a sick man healed of dullness by playing Sangreal into the wee small hours. How Merlin announced to King Arthur the 'SANGREAL BOARD GAME' should be played throughout the Realm. And how King Arthur had all his knights together for to practice being not angry and never to laugh at anything before they departed. And how expressions of ability appeared in the knights and in the ladies as they sat at supper and how all the knights took upon themselves the quest to prove, to have patience where woman are concerned; should become a virtue too.

Porthole and Periscope on The Game

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal believing in yourself and in your abilities and what you can achieve.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal taking control for yourself and of yourself in every aspect of your life.

Sangreal play brings about coolness without being cocky and a strong-willed, feisty, friendly and fun sensuality.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal realization of your personality inside of you and of loving the new you.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal leaning into synchronicity towards someone you are interested in to show you are being engaged by what they are saying.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal sense you are a great slow and controlled talker.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal watching to see whether others are copying your Sangreal style. If they do it's a good sign they like you and see you as being a great player.

Sangreal play brings about a supernormal power smiling and a body language, showing you are at ease with yourself.

What Sangreal Play is NOT About!

Sangreal play is not about a world of quips, and claims to false fames and tongue-tying talk.

Sangreal play is not about being arrogant and intolerant to the personally notable comments of others.

Sangreal play is not about being intimidating and humiliating others.

Sangreal play is not about being pushy and shouting to get your point across.

Sangreal play is not about demanding change in others without considering change in yourself.

Sangreal play is not about being bossy—just the boss of your world.

Sangreal play is not about being defensive and blocking others comments cutting them short during their delivery.

Sangreal play is not about speaking loudly or small talk, or talk-talk.

A Sangreal player is defined by their supernormal sense of self and comfort in their own identity as witnessed by others in their ability to express themselves in and outside the game.

DECISIVENESS

The Sangreal player approaches the games quotes and situations outside the game with supernormal extrasensory decisiveness through right-brain universe guided insightful choice.

PERSAUSION

Sangreal players ultimate power of persuasion comes from their supernormal reflex ability to express themselves in the open freeness of the game.

RESPECT

The Sangreal player knows the value of respect through giving and receiving it inside and outside the game.

BEGIN TODAY TO EXPERIENCE THE EXTREME EXCITEMENT AND EXHILARATION OF PLAYING THE SANGREAL BOARD GAME!

YOU WILL EXPERIENCE ONGOING BENEFITS LONG AFTER GAME PLAY HAS ENDED!

Are you frustrated with having too little topics of conversation, of concern and curiosity?

Springing from absence of effort or influence of memory? Causing an unbroken inability to bring into your life the transcending merits of excellent communication with one another!

Are you angry about regularly being unable to take up the care necessary to lead the way and urge we prepare the way to quench our gusto for what we are as a whole unable to achieve without free for all conversation, built on which everything turns and relies on – freedom of speech for all?

Would you like to get your hands on a user-friendly board game, designed to help communicate one to one conversations on a great variety of matters of interest on a wide selection of subjects. Boundlessly giving you the means to bring into action full privilege to utilize the complete power and potential of your personality?

And by now to be satisfied as to the truth and certainty of this awesome opportunity to develop, your staggering perception, all you need is to make available to yourself, the potential within this game to unite in a free for all manner, the devices given to help realize the power and potential of your personality to increase your chances of forever more, developing, enduring life long friendships and continuing positive mental attitude.

How are you? My name is Marc Stewart I am author of this book and the creator of the board game Sangreal.

If you are searching for a well- balanced state of mind and feelings, promoting a tranquil demeanor and self-possession, favoring not one opinion or belief more than another. Then listen very carefully, because I am going to share with you the mystery of Sangreal. I would like to present to you the benefits of Sangreal.

It promotes happiness which is expressed by an inner contentment, wellbeing, pleasure, and a feeling, things are good.

And now to the second benefit, collaboration, working together, on the same task, for the same purpose, to be attentive to minor details of action and behavior, to work out in detail, endeavoring to influence, persuade and advocate solutions to the difficulties confronting us today.

And now to the third benefit, openness, the Sangreal's way of play promotes the revealing of one's true nature and feelings, encouraging cleverness and talent, high mental ability, straightforwardness, genuineness, freedom from pretending and a favorable disposition, good nature and kindness.

Here is what one of the players who took part in the pre Indiegogo campaign trials of the game said, in a recent email to me.

Loved the game, it's good to see, friends and family enjoying themselves with the benefits the game provides being an opportunity to engage in good honest to goodness conversation on meaningful topics.

And this from a CEO of a large manufacturing corporation, who writes. Our employees who played the game all felt the same impetus to empty themselves of their need to express openly their desire to communicate their points of view on matters important to the future growth of the company.

You too can begin today to reap the benefits of the exciting opportunities this game presents such, as its ability to stimulate a continuous flow of original ideas of a unique nature drawn from within the minds of all its players.

Go ahead if you want to eliminate the problem of endlessly boring dinner parties and corporate affairs seldom going beyond the mundane monkey-like chatter of everyday speech we all have to endure on such a regular basis without any recourse to enjoy the benefits of collaboration, openness and happiness. Not to mention the wealth of opportunities available to us all, through the ongoing dialogue created when players leave the realm of play and venture forth into the wide-open expanses of life continuing to express themselves in the open manner afforded them by the games ability to stimulate and hold their interest captive, well beyond the boundaries of play.

By now you will realize the benefits of ownership of your very own boxed set of the board game Sangreal, enabling you to gather your friends, family and colleagues together – play awakens your dreams.

The family board game Sangreal . . . some do . . . some don't have a beautiful mind!

The beautiful hand crafted wooden playing board box, hand made cards, Grail Cup, tiny playing pieces, wooden dice and the tiny wooden spheres were all made so we could play the game. These handcrafted wooden sets are available to buy and own as heirloom sets.

God's Mathematics!

I have finally just taken a look at the Fibonacci numbers and realized immediately they are musical hertz frequencies, as they grow beyond the first three digits place a decimal point and either round up or separate out the remaining digits after the first tone into further tones of three digits until rounding up. Also I began to match the Fibonacci numbers to the prime numbers, to realize quickly beginning with the number 1 in the Fibonacci list the match up to the 19th prime, being the English alphabet letter S representing sound only misses by the amount of 2 to being the same Fibonacci number 6765 which decodes as gravity (magnetism) consisting of two frequencies. The foremost one being E, the prime giving C has the foremost polarity magnetic, the Fibonacci musical frequency number 17711 being C radio 177.11 is also only 2 as an amount away from the prime 17713 God's secret art decoded = misses by 2 = B = tone of B holds the key to be free of E.

Of course the Fibonacci number I was most interested in is the 33rd (Earth 33 Harmonic) in the list being 701408733 which is the same as the prime rounded up to 70141, the Fibonacci number breaking up into the three sound notes in Hertz of a 701 tone, a 408 tone and a 733 tone.

Just the same as when listening to an orchestra playing, you can hear the instruments having a conversation, these numbers when matched to the English alphabet tell many stories, for instance not too far into Pi the following stream of data is found;

4696406665315 translated by way Of the God's secret art decoded = 4 = D for degrees magnetic, 6 = F for frequency, 9 = I for human-beings, 640 = the unwanted noise E, 666 represents E also but more-so from its REALITY dividing of you up to communicate away from each other physically, 53 = the C as a middle influence empowerment formed of and capable of gamma power radio and lastly the 15 = O for the pure oxygen you need to be free of this single carbon utmost fear.

Next I have taken a quick look at the number digits making up Phi. The first thing I noticed was the many times the Fibonacci number 17711 and rounded up prime number 1771(3) came into view in different combinations, yet in my quick search from Phi's beginning I did not find an exact match and this validated a long held belief of mine, nothing in a normal natural magnetic environment should be ever deemed exactly as a dead straight line, rather since this Q-C (quantum-classical)-Mechanical reality seen is built of Pi's curves laid onto the B-Z-Mechanical slightly (light with a little e) straight lines of Phi's making.

I began to locate the shortened version of the 33rd Fibonacci number 701408733 which as I stated earlier matches the prime of 70141 when rounded up. Zero Is not a number it is the E enemy O out of the word GOOD to negate the power of GOOD into God.

Of course the O will have the last word being the oxygen you are breathing.

So now back at home I looked for 70141 or similar inside Phi and there it was being the sum after 704 all rounded up to 705 and the digits, the individual sums before and after it being as follows 433387051667149, Decoded from God's secret art code as follows in short, 4 = degrees magnetic of 3 = C33, 8 = hydrogen engine (Great Pyramid as an EMP engine, being a magnetic pulse), 705 hertz tone alone, 1 = A =apple = pips = Morse Code = free strange quarks inside water of a negative E charge, 667 = two polarities magnetic, negative E and positive C, 14 = the English alphabet letter N for Nonesuch the composer who put the KP Index of the Earth's magnetic strengths to music, with the cover of this LP record glued on my collage artwork titled QUANTUMS OF TIME.

Seen at marcsfineart.com.

And lastly the 9 = whatever it is to be human when E is removed.

Footnote: It is time that is the difference factor that decides the position and momentum of a Mobius Ring and sphere in quantum mechanics not probability. And it is the sphere when away by distance from its partner Mobius, mirroring the same characteristics of its companion in Albert Einstein's "spooky-action-at-a-distance. Called by most quantum entanglement, which should not be happening in a normal naturally stable C sharp only reality. Sangreal uses the E instigated quantum entanglement event unwanted and unnatural to our advantage (love) by influencing the mass consciousness of humanity at large by the players' use of association by way of philosophical and psychological reasoning, transposing the left hemispheres content of thought, overflowing it through the art form of contemplation into the creative doing motivated right hemisphere of the players' minds'. On into the mass mind of everyone producing an overall upswell of positive upbeat joyous development of individual and collective super consciousness. Affecting a good and a great outcome throughout C sharp and God's secret art influence content in movies ongoing through the process of providing increase to 100% power of the subconscious ESP (extrasensory perception) mind of every person on the planet. Their inner consciousness sublimely changed by Sangreal plays quantum entanglement empowerment through the influence in the middle of it all by the force we can term as God, as infinite intelligence, as divine intervention, as the universal mind, as providence rearing itself into the long night of normally E driven chaos!

The Holy Grail Method!

Take a blank piece of paper, begin with Dear God. Once your question is written take your pencil or pen and follow what you have written saying the question out loud to yourself alone, then simply pause at the end and a thought will enter your minds free space. Write this answer down on the same page, if ever the word or phrase answer seems to be unclear to you seek out a good Dictionary and seek out the definition that God is trying to give you. If necessary ask again if the definition you have chosen is the one God intends. Or you think it is not the answer you wanted, it means you are being asked to think a lot more about it, as contemplation builds the bridge made of thought to reach the unknown stepping stones across the flowing stream of God's thoughts into your mind. Another good practical kind of question is to write a selection of numbered alternative outcomes when you need to make a certain decision always give a last number with the words OR OTHER. Which If given in reply it means you are being asked to think some more first, meaning another direction. Think as a movie writer first, then as a director, it is your story.

Two Envelopes At Birth!

Andrew Carnegie said, 'Everyone at birth brings with him the equivalent of two sealed envelopes. One of them is clearly labeled the riches you may enjoy if you take possess of your own mind directing it to ends of your own choice. The other is labeled the penalties you must pay if you neglect to take possession of your mind'.

In the envelope labeled riches there is the following list:

Sound health.

Peace of mind.

The labor of love of your choice.

Freedom from worry and fear.

A positive mental attitude.

Material riches of your own choice and quantity.

In the sealed envelope labeled penalties. Mr Carnegie said, 'this list is the penalties you must pay for neglecting to take possession of his own mind'.

Ill health.

Fear and worry.

Indecision and doubt.

Frustration and discouragement throughout life.

Poverty and want. And a whole flock of envy, greed, jealousy, hatred and superstition.

Make a statement of what you want out of life.

And make a statement of what you will give to get it. Memorize both by reciting morning and evening and 12 times during the day. And then a prayer of gratitude as follows:

Prayer. I ask not for divine providence or more riches but more wisdom with which I can accept and use the riches I received at birth and the power and control to direct my mind to whatever ends I desire.

Whatever the mind can conceive and believe the mind can achieve.
